an exhibit marking the donation of books to the University by the People's Republic of China

October 13th 1998

Thomas Cooper Library
University of South Carolina
Columbia, South Carolina

This exhibit of books has been mounted to mark the donation to the University of South Carolina by the People's Republic of China of an extensive collection of Chinese-language books and reference works, totalling more than 200 volumes.

The exhibit was displayed at the formal presentation of the books to the library on October 13th, 1998, by Mr. Liu Xiamong, Minister and Chief of Mission for the People's Republic of China in Washington, DC, and their acceptance by Dr. John Palms, President of the University of South Carolina.

Most of the books displayed are drawn from the library of the original South Carolina College, chartered in 1801. Also displayed are books about China from the personal library of Charles Pinckney (1757-1827), governor of South Carolina, and author of the "Pinckney draft" of the U.S. federal constitution.
