FOREWORD

The recent labor trouble in the coal industry points up the issues under discussion in our first article on monopoly practices by labor unions and makes it a very timely one. This article is written by experts in the anti-trust field. A discussion of the Robertson Bill, proposing withdrawal of labor's immunity from anti-trust law, is included in this article.

Legal and Mathematical Aspects of Cumulative Voting is an excellent treatment of an important, but little known, field of the law. Included is a very full statement concerning the mathematical approach and solution of corporate voting problems.

In publishing our third article, we do not advocate secession from the union, but we feel that the Doctrines of Nullification and Secession should be included in the legal training of every South Carolina lawyer. This article will be of interest wherever states rights issues arise.

Attention is called to the fact that on February 9, 1950, the South Carolina General Assembly passed the Uniform Partnership Act. It was signed by the Governor on February 13, 1950. This act will be treated in an article by Professor Coleman Karesh in a future issue.
