JUNE, 1950

NO. 4

FOREWORD

One of the most successful, profitable and happy gatherings ever held in the history of the South Carolina Bar Association was our recent meeting in Spartanburg. A spirit of cooperation and helpfulness was present at all times.

Our next meeting will be held at Greenville, in the Spring of 1951. This is a lovely City, whose residents are a most hospitable and charming people. They are glad to have us with them and every effort will be made for our comfort and pleasure.

May I suggest that each Circuit have a gathering in honor of the presiding or resident Judge, at which time some one bring to their attention the merits and the advisability of supporting the State Bar Association.

I will be delighted at all times to render whatever service I can in behalf of our Association.

FRANK A. McLEOD.
