The South Carolina Journal of International Law & Business (US ISSN 1936-4334) is a student-edited legal journal published in affiliation with the University of South Carolina. ## SUBMISSIONS INFORMATION

The South Carolina Journal of International Law & Business welcomes the submission of articles from scholars, practitioners, business leaders, government officials, and jurists on topics relating to recent developments in international law and business. The Journal also welcomes the submission of shorter works such as book reviews, commentaries, and bibliographies by qualified authors. The Journal does not consider submissions from students not on the Journal's staff.

In selecting a submission for publication, the Journal considers its originality, meaningfulness, and thoroughness. Submissions must conform with The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010) and the Texas Law Review Manual on Usage & Style (12th ed. 2011). Submissions should be in Microsoft Word format, double-spaced, and footnoted appropriately. Additionally, submissions should have numbered pages.

The Journal prefers submission through the ExpressO electronic submission service. Alternatively, submissions may be emailed to Submissions@scjilb.org or sent via post to

When submitting via email or post, the author should include a curriculum vitae or resume listing educational and employment history and previous publications.

The Journal promptly reviews submissions on a rolling basis. Expedited review may be available for authors facing strict acceptance deadlines from other publications. The author should email the submission and include in the subject line "expedited review." The body of the email should include the author's name, the title of the manuscript, the names of other publications from which the author has received offers, and the relevant deadline. The journal does not guarantee it will make a selection decision prior to the author's deadline. Regrettably, the Journal is unable to perform expedited reviews during May or December.

While acknowledgements are typically reserved for our final issue in every volume, the Journal wanted to take a special moment to recognize and express our deepest gratitude to Professor Martin McWilliams for being an instrumental part of our past symposium. Without his patience and effort we could not have facilitated such a successful event. We would also like to sincerely thank the faculty and administration of the University of South Carolina School of Law, especially Dean Robert M. Wilcox for his gracious support and assistance with our symposium.
