

Studies in Scottish Literature

Volume 16 | Issue 1

Article 21

1981

Contributors

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarcommons.sc.edu/ssl>

Part of the English Language and Literature Commons

Recommended Citation

(1981) "Contributors," Studies in Scottish Literature: Vol. 16: Iss. 1.

Available at: <https://scholarcommons.sc.edu/ssl/vol16/iss1/21>

This is brought to you by the Scottish Literature Collections at Scholar Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Studies in Scottish Literature by an authorized editor of Scholar Commons. For more information, please contact digres@mailbox.sc.edu.

Contributors

BROWN, Mary Ellen. Associate Professor of Folklore at Indiana University. Has long been interested in the relationship of Burns to Scottish traditional culture. Has published in Scottish Studies, Scottish Literary Journal, and Journal of the Folklore Institute (Bloomington, Indiana). Currently working on the Scottish local poet tradition.

CARRETTA, Vincent. Assistant Professor of English at the University of Maryland. His publications, primarily on eighteenth-century British art and literature, have appeared or are forthcoming in Cithara, Eighteenth-Century Life, Journal of English and Germanic Philology, Modern Philology, Philological Quarterly, The Scriblerian, and Studies in English Literature. He has just completed a book-length study of verbal and visual political satire in early eighteenth-century England.

COLE, Richard C. Ph.D. from Yale, Professor of English at Davidson College. Has published articles on Boswell, Goldsmith, Smollett, and eighteenth-century Irish publishing, in such journals as Modern Philology, Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America, Philological Quarterly, and Studies in Scottish Literature. Is at this time completing a volume of Boswell's correspondence for the Yale Editions of the Private Papers of James Boswell.

- CRISCUOLA, Margaret Movshin. Has done graduate work at the University of Chicago and Washington University, St. Louis, where she is completing a dissertation on "The Representation of Historical Change in the Waverley Novels." Teaches creative writing at Washington University.
- DAVIES, Rick A. M.A. East Tennessee State University. Served as a Russian translator in the U.S. Air Force. General Editor of Mockingbird, a student multiple arts magazine which has for several years received honors from the School of Journalism of the University of Minnesota.
- DONALDSON, William. Ph.D. at Aberdeen for a thesis on Scottish Jacobite poetry. Has worked as a librarian, archivist and teacher. He is a frequent contributor to the Scottish Literary Journal, and is actively engaged in research into politics and poetry in eighteenth-century Scotland.
- FREEMAN, F. W. M.Litt. (Aberdeen), at present working on Robert Fergusson for the degree of Ph.D. at Edinburgh University. Freelance piper.
- GIFFORD, Douglas. Lectures at the University of Strathclyde, Glasgow. Among the books he has edited are Scottish Short Stories, 1800-1900; James Hogg's Three Perils of Man; and James Hogg: New Assessments; with Alexander Scott he edited Neil M. Gunn: The Man and the Writer. He is a frequent contributor to B.B.C. programs on the arts in Scotland. In addition to his annual assessment of Scottish fiction which appears in SSL, he has contributed articles to other publications, particularly on Scottish fiction.
- HOSUM, Mary E. Instructor of English at Harford Community College, Bel Air, Maryland, and Ph.D. candidate in English at the Catholic University of America.
- HUBERMAN, Elizabeth. Professor of English at Kean College of New Jersey, First Vice President of the College English Association. A book, The Poetry of Edwin Muir, published by Oxford in 1972. Co-edited anthologies such as Great British Short Stories and Fifty Great Essays; has published articles on Muir, Hart Crane, Yeats, Eliot and most recently George Mackay Brown--an essay on his Greenvoe in Critique.
- MCGUIRK, Carol. Ph.D. Columbia University, is an Assistant Professor at Rutgers College. She is completing a book about the impact of the sentimental movement on the life and works of Burns.

- MELLOWN, Muriel Jackson. Professor of English at North Carolina Central University, is a native of Yorkshire and was educated at University College, University of London. She has published essays on Wordsworth in The Wordsworth Circle and The Yearbook of English Studies. Her long study of Book III of The Prelude appeared in the Durham University Journal in 1979.
- ORTEGA, Ramón López is Professor of English Language and Literature and Head of the English Department of the University of Alicante, Spain. He has taught in the Universities of Salamanca, Santiago, Sevilla, and Extremadura. His publications include two books on the English literature of the 1930's, and several articles published in England, Germany, and Spain, and he is co-editor of English Literature and the Working Class. Currently working on translations of Shakespeare and Old English poetry into Spanish.
- OWER, Patricia. Received her M.A. degree in English from the University of Alberta, with a thesis on the novels of Neil Gunn. Wrote the entry on the science-fiction writer R. A. Lafferty for the Dictionary of Literary Biography.
- WALKER, Ian C. Lecturer in English and Liberal Studies at Elmwood Technical College, Cupar, Fife. He holds the degrees of M.A. and Ph.D. from St. Andrews University. In 1969 he was awarded the John W. Oliver Memorial Prize in Scottish Life and Letters for his Ph.D. thesis on Ruddiman's Weekly Magazine (Edinburgh 1768-1784).
- ZIEGFELD, Richard E. Assistant Professor of English and Comparative Literature at the University of South Carolina. Has published in Seminar, The William Carlos Williams Review, Modern Fiction Studies and has contributed to the Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature and the Dictionary of Literary Biography. Currently working on Stanislaw Lem as well as on author-publisher relationships.