THE SOUTH CAROLINA LAW QUARTERLY

VOL. 4

JUNE, 1952

NO. 4

EDITOR'S FOREWORD

With this issue the QUARTERLY completes four years of publication. The Staff would like to express their appreciation to the faculty of the Law School and to the South Carolina Bar for their cooperation which has made possible the growth and progress accomplished during this period.

The circulation of the QUARTERLY is now approaching the one-thousand mark, and the orders for back issues are steadily increasing. We are highly gratified by this increase in appreciation for and interest in the QUARTERLY.

In this issue are presented the minutes of the annual meeting of the South Carolina Bar Association, held this year in Columbia, South Carolina. Also in this issue is a summary of legislation enacted by the General Assembly during the 1951-1952 session.

In the way of student work, this issue contains notes on Balance of Convenience, Conspiracy, and Reservations of Life Estates.

Any comments or suggestions from our readers will be appreciated.
