Letter from the Co-Editors

Welcome to the latest issue of South Carolina Libraries. We are excited to be publishing our issue after a short hiatus with a new editorial board and the welcome of a special conference edition. We want to extend our appreciation to Brent Appling for his years of service as the Editor and Elise Wallace for her service as the Book Review Editor. Our new editorial board includes April Akins and Megan Palmer as Co-Editors, Stacy Winchester as Book Review Editor, Edward Blessing as Peer Review Editor, and Amie Freeman as Technical Advisor. Thank you to the full editorial board for their hard work and dedication to making this issue a reality during our current reality of closed library doors and librarians from across South Carolina working from home.

Within this issue you will find letters from our editors, featured articles, peer reviewed and non-peer reviewed conference proceedings from the 2019 South Carolina Association Annual Conference. We hope you enjoy this issue and invite you to publish with us in the future. Our publication cycle will be twice a year with the Spring edition dedicated to the previous year's conference. For the Fall issue, we will accept and publish submissions on a rolling basis. We welcome and encourage submissions from librarians, library workers, and library students.
