Announcement

It is with regret that the Journal accepts the resignation of Professor Joseph Renzulli as Book Review Editor. Joe's work has been truly dedicated and outstanding and we are sorry that other commitments make it impossible for him to continue in this capacity. We are delighted, however, that he will continue to serve on our Board of Editors.

At the same time, we are pleased to announce that Professor Phillip K. Piele of the University of Oregon has undertaken the position of Book Review Editor. Professor Piele is the Director of the ERIC Clearinghouse on Educational Management and the Immediate Past President of the National Organization on Legal Problems of Education as well as the author and editor of many works in the field of law and education. We are indeed fortunate to have someone as able and dedicated as Professor Piele to assume the burdens that Professor Renzulli carried so well. All inquiries concerning Book Reviews, books for review and authorship of reviews should henceforth be addressed to:
