

1959

FOREWORD

David H. Means
University of South Carolina

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarcommons.sc.edu/sclr>

 Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

David H. Means, Foreword, 12 S.C.L.R. 1. (1959).

This Article is brought to you by the Law Reviews and Journals at Scholar Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in South Carolina Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholar Commons. For more information, please contact digres@mailbox.sc.edu.

SURVEY OF SOUTH CAROLINA LAW

April, 1958 - April, 1959

FOREWORD

Herein presented is the sixth Annual Survey of South Carolina Law, covering a period from April 1, 1958, through March 31, 1959. All opinions of the South Carolina Supreme Court, as well as those of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court which involve South Carolina law, are included in the articles reviewing developments in each of the several legal fields. Also, mention is made of major legislation enacted during the 1959 session of the South Carolina General Assembly.

The subjects of Criminal Law and Procedure, and Damages are missing from the Survey because these reports were not received in time for publication.

As in the past the Annual Survey is the product of a committee appointed by the President of the South Carolina Bar Association from the Association membership. The review of the cases and statutory developments in each of the several legal fields is the responsibility of the committee member or members assigned that field.

Editing and publication of the Survey is the task of the staff of the South Carolina Law Quarterly. The committee wishes to thank all members of the staff, and especially Messrs. Harold W. Jacobs, Victor S. Evans, and Lowell W. Ross, who served as special editors in charge of the Survey issue.

DAVID H. MEANS, Chairman,
Committee on Annual Survey of South Carolina Law.