CORRECTION TO SSL 42.2 (2016)

The editors of the Sorley MacLean centenary volume Ainmeil Thar Cheudan (Sleat: Clò Ostaig, 2016), Ronald W. Renton and Ian MacDonald, have written to suggest that the second to last sentence in SSL's brief notice (SSL 42.2 [2016], 386) included a sentence that will have confused some readers, for which I apologize. They write (in an email dated November 6, 2018): "The work whose different versions Christopher Whyte discusses at some length in the book is not Dàin do Eimhir, as stated in the notice, but the long poem An Cuilithionn, and even that was not 'significantly rewritten' but subjected to various cuts, as Whyte makes clear in the interview." They also communicated the retail price, a very reasonable £8.99.
