EDITOR'S FOREWORD

Due to the expanded length of the twenty-first Annual Survey of South Carolina Law, we are compelled by financial considerations to present it in two issues. The Survey is traditionally composed of students' analyses of cases decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, the Supreme Court of South Carolina, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, and the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina for the period between January 1 and December 31, 1974. Only those cases which appeared to be of particular significance with respect to South Carolina law have been included in order for there to be a more extensive analysis of the cases presented. Since a primary purpose of the Survey is to assist the practicing bar, we solicit your suggestions, comments and criticisms so that this goal may be achieved.
