DEDICATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA LAW CENTER

INTRODUCTION

The University of South Carolina Law Center was formally dedicated on Saturday, May 4, 1974. This new institution will serve the needs of law students and the legal community at large through a broad range of research and educational activities. In addition to the law school, the facility houses the Institute on Law & Education, the Institute on Criminal Justice, the Institute on Continuing Legal Education and the offices of the South Carolina Bar Association.

In this dedication issue the Law Review publishes tributes to Dean Robert McC. Figg, Jr., and Coleman Karesh. Their contributions to the growth of the law school and the new center have been immeasurable. The dedication addresses of Governor John C. West and Mr. Justice Lewis F. Powell, Jr., follow.
