ANNUAL REPORT

University Academic Responsibility Committee

The University Committee on Academic Responsibility hears appeals from decisions made by college or school Committees on Academic Responsibility. Several appeals were made to the University Committee during the 1986-87 academic year from several schools and colleges. All were resolved. One appeal was withdrawn before the Committee could consider it. In two appeals, the Committee granted an appellate hearing. The University Committee upheld the decisions of the college or school Committees in all appeals except one.

Professor Gale Breedlove of the College of Education has been elected chair for the 1987-88 academic year.
