

REPORT: COMMITTEE ON CURRICULA AND COURSES
(For consideration by the Faculty Senate at its November 3, 2010 meeting.)

Per the USC Policies and Procedures Manual - Academic Affairs section ACAF 2.00 and 2.03 Appendices, any department which has a proposal being recommended by the Committee on Curricula and Courses must have a representative in attendance at the Faculty Senate meeting in which said proposal is to be recommended.

Please contact Jennifer Vendemia (Psychology) in advance of Faculty Senate meeting if errors are noted, either by phone: 777-6738 or e-mail: Vendemia@mailbox.sc.edu.

1. COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

A. Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice

New courses

CRJU 535 Inmates and Prisons. (3) Examination of issues affecting prisons and the inmates confined within them. Specific topics of study will include the philosophy and goals of imprisonment, institutional crowding, inmate rights, inmate adaptation, and individual and collective misconduct.

CRJU 565 Organized Crime. (3) Origins and modern day activity of organized crime in the United States and internationally will be investigated. Attention is given to problems of criminal activity and the present day transnational character of criminal organizations.

B. Program of Islamic Studies

Change in curriculum. Website 2010-2011 Bulletin – to minor.

Current	Proposed
Islamic Cultures Minor College of Arts and Sciences Core Courses (6 Hours) Select two courses from the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · ANTH 310 - Cultures of Islam · HIST 104 - Introduction to the Civilization of the Islamic Middle East · RELG 357 - Introduction to Islam 	Islamic World Studies Minor College of Arts and Sciences Core Courses (6 Hours) Select two courses from the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · ANTH 310 - Cultures of Islam · ANTH 311 - Middle East Cultures · GEOG 226 - Geography of the Middle East · HIST 104 - Introduction to the Civilization of the Islamic Middle East

Electives (12 Hours) Select one course from four of the following groups: Group A – Languages, Literature, and Culture –ARAB 121 – Elementary Arabic –ARAB 122 – Basic Proficiency in Arabic · ARAB 201 - Intermediate Arabic · ARAB 202 - Intermediate Arabic · ARAB 310 - Conversational Arabic · ARAB 398 - Selected Topics · FREN 453 - Francophone Literatures and Cultures –SWAH 121 – Elementary Swahili –SWAH 122 – Basic Proficiency in Swahili Group B – Anthropology · ANTH 311 - Middle Eastern Cultures · ANTH 315 - South Asian Cultures · ANTH 316 - Southeast Asian Cultures Group C – Religious Studies · RELG 358 - The Qur'an and Hadith · RELG 359 - Islamic Theology and Philosophical Thought · RELG 367 - Sufism · RELG 369 - Islamic Law Group D – History · HIST 347 - The Middle East in Modern Times · HIST 348 - North Africa from Colonialism to Revolution: 1830-1962 · HIST 349 - The Contemporary Middle East and North Africa · HIST 386 - Islamic Institutions and Traditions · HIST 562 - The Middle East and the United States: 1800 to the Present Group E – Political Science · POLI 449 - International Relations of the Middle East · POLI 483 - Middle East Politics Group F – Geography · GEOG 226 - Geography of the Middle East	· RELG 357 - Introduction to Islam Electives (12 Hours) Select four courses from the listing of courses below. Course choices must include at least one of the listed courses in Religious Studies unless taken to fulfill other degree requirements. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · ANTH 310 - Cultures of Islam · ANTH 311 - Middle Eastern Cultures · ANTH 315 - South Asian Cultures · ANTH 316 - Southeast Asian Cultures · ANTH 515 - Tradition and Transformations in Islamic Cultures · ANTH 516 - Indonesian Culture Through Film · ARAB 201 - Intermediate Arabic · ARAB 202 - Intermediate Arabic · ARAB 280 - Introduction to Modern Arab Culture · ARAB 301 - Advanced Arabic Language 1 · ARAB 302 - Advanced Arabic Language 2 · ARAB 310 - Conversational Arabic · ARAB 320 - Introduction to Modern Arab Literature in Translation · ARAB 398 - Selected Topics · FREN 453 - Francophone Literatures and Cultures · GEOG 226 - Geography of the Middle East · HIST 104 - Introduction to the Civilization of the Islamic Middle East · HIST 347 - The Middle East in Modern Times · HIST 348 - North Africa from Colonialism to Revolution: 1830-1962 · HIST 349 - The Contemporary Middle East and North Africa · HIST 386 - Islamic Institutions and Traditions · HIST 562 - The Middle East and the United States: 1800 to the Present
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · POLI 449 - International Relations of the Middle East · POLI 483 - Middle East Politics · RELG 357 - Introduction to Islam · RELG 358 - The Qur'an and Hadith · RELG 359 - Islamic Theology and Philosophical Thought · RELG 367 - Sufism · RELG 369 - Islamic Law (Note: 121 and 122 in Arabic or Swahili are recommended as choices for the foreign language requirement.)
--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

C. Department of Political Science

New course

POLI 383 Genocide: A Comparative Perspective. (3) An analysis of the causes of genocide and the application of those insights to explain how genocide has occurred repeatedly at various times and places across the globe.

D. Department of Statistics

Change in description

From: STAT 509 Statistics for Engineers. (3) (Prereq: MATH 142 or equivalent) Basic probability and statistics with applications and examples in engineering. Elementary probability, random variables and their distributions, random processes, statistical inference, curve fitting, prediction, correlation and application to quality assurance, reliability, and life testing.

To: STAT 509 Statistics for Engineers. (3) (Prereq: MATH 142 or equivalent) Basic probability and statistics with applications and examples in engineering. Elementary probability, random variables and their distributions, random processes, statistical inference, linear regression, correlation and basic design of experiments with application to quality assurance, reliability, and life testing.

2. MOORE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

A. Economics

Change in prerequisite

From: ECON 222 Principles of Macroeconomics. (3) (Prereq: ECON 221)

To: ECON 222 Principles of Macroeconomics. (3)

Addition of Distance Education Delivery to Existing Course

ECON 224 Introduction to Economics. (3)

B. International Business

Change in curriculum. Website 2010-2011 Bulletin – International Business

Current	Proposed
4. International Business (15 Hours) <hr/>	4. International Business (15 Hours) <hr/>
The international business major must be taken in combination with a second major in business and requires 27-36 hours.	The international business major must be taken in combination with a second major in business and requires 27-36 hours.
(3 Hours) <hr/>	(3 Hours) <hr/>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 310 - Globalization and Business 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 310 - Globalization and Business
Minimum of one of the following functional courses (3 Hours): <hr/>	Minimum of one of the following functional courses (3 Hours): <hr/>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 401 - International Financial Management • IBUS 402 - International Marketing • IBUS 405 - International Information Systems • MGSC 405 - International Information Systems • MGMT 406 - International Human Resource Management • ECON 303 - The International Economy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 401 - International Financial Management • IBUS 402 - International Marketing • IBUS 405 - International Information Systems • MGSC 405 - International Information Systems • MGMT 406 - International Human Resource Management • ECON 303 - The International Economy
Minimum of one of the following thematic courses (3-6 Hours): <hr/>	Minimum of one of the following thematic courses (3-6 Hours): <hr/>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 422 - Foreign Market Entry and Growth • IBUS 423 - Cross-Cultural Behavior and Negotiations • IBUS 424 - Exporting and Importing • IBUS 425 - Competitive Strategies in Developing Countries • IBUS 426 - Global Competitive Analysis 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 422 - Foreign Market Entry and Growth • IBUS 423 - Cross-Cultural Behavior and Negotiations • IBUS 424 - Exporting and Importing • IBUS 425 - Competitive Strategies in Developing Countries • IBUS 426 - Global Competitive Analysis
One of the following regional courses (3 Hours): <hr/>	One of the following regional courses (3 Hours): <hr/>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 441 - Business in Latin America * • IBUS 442 - Business in Asia * • IBUS 443 - Business in Europe * • IBUS 444 - Business in Africa 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 441 - Business in Latin America * • IBUS 442 - Business in Asia * • IBUS 443 - Business in Europe * • IBUS 444 - Business in Africa
*Because one or more of these courses may not be offered on campus during the two years that a student may be taking major-level courses, these courses are	*Because one or more of these courses may not be offered on campus during the two years that a student may be taking major-level courses, these courses are most appropriate for

most appropriate for study abroad. Chinese Business Track (15 Hours) <hr/> The Chinese Business Track in the International Business major allows the student to concentrate on International Business activities with China. The requirements are: (3 Hours) <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 310 - Globalization and Business One functional course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> One thematic course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> Two regional courses (6 Hours) <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 442 - Business in Asia * • IBUS 490 - Specialized Study in International Business * • *Because one or more of these courses may not be offered on campus during the two years that a student may be taking major-level courses, these courses are most appropriate for study abroad. Note: <hr/> Students in the Chinese Business Track meet the regional course requirements with courses dealing primarily with China and Asia.	study abroad. Chinese Business Track (15 Hours) <hr/> The Chinese Business Track in the International Business major allows the student to concentrate on International Business activities with China. The requirements are: (3 Hours) <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 310 - Globalization and Business One functional course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> One thematic course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> Two regional courses (6 Hours) <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 442 - Business in Asia * • IBUS 490 - Specialized Study in International Business * • *Because one or more of these courses may not be offered on campus during the two years that a student may be taking major-level courses, these courses are most appropriate for study abroad. Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Business Track (15 Hours) <hr/> The Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Business Track in the International Business major allows the student to concentrate on International Business activities with this region. The
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

	requirements are: (3 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 310 - Globalization and Business One functional course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> One thematic course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> Two regional courses (6 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 444 - Business in Africa * • IBUS 490 - Specialized Study in International Business * • *Because one or more of these courses may not be offered on campus during the two years that a student may be taking major-level courses, these courses are most appropriate for study abroad. Central Europe Business Track (15 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> The Central Europe Business Track in the International Business major allows the student to concentrate on International Business activities with this region. The requirements are: (3 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 310 - Globalization and Business One functional course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> One thematic course from the list above (3 Hours) <hr/> <hr/> Two regional courses (6 Hours) <hr/> <hr/>
--	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Competitive Admission: Admission to the international business major is highly competitive, and enrollment is limited to 50 students per year. Enrollment in the Chinese Business Track is limited to 20 additional students per year. Double Major: Students selecting international business as a major are required to select a second major in business. Foreign Language: IBUS major requires at least four courses numbered 300 and above in one foreign language. Students in the Chinese Business Track meet the foreign language requirement by selecting Chinese as the language to study. Specific course requirements may be obtained from the undergraduate division. Study Abroad: IBUS major requires students to participate in an approved study-abroad program. Students meet the overseas study requirement in China.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IBUS 443 - Business in Europe * • IBUS 490 - Specialized Study in International Business * • *Because one or more of these courses may not be offered on campus during the two years that a student may be taking major-level courses, these courses are most appropriate for study abroad. Students in the Chinese Business Track meet the regional course requirements with courses dealing primarily with China and Asia. Students in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Business Track meet the regional course requirements with courses dealing primarily with the Middle East and Africa. Students in the Central Europe Business Track meet the regional course requirements with courses dealing primarily with the Central Europe. Competitive Admission: Admission to the international business major is highly competitive, and enrollment is limited. Special limits apply to regional tracks. Enrollment in the Chinese Business Track is limited to 20 additional students per year. Enrollment in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Business Track is limited to 20 additional students per year. Enrollment in the Central Europe Business Track is limited to 20 additional students per year. Double Major: Students selecting international business as a major are required to select a second major in business. Foreign Language: IBUS major requires at least four courses numbered 300 and above in one foreign language. Specific course requirements may be obtained from the undergraduate division. Students in the Chinese Business Track meet the foreign language requirement by selecting Chinese as the language to study. Students in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Business Track meet the foreign language requirement by selecting Arabic as the language to study. Students in the Central Europe Business Track meet the foreign language requirement by selecting German as the language to study. Specific course requirements may be obtained from the undergraduate division. Foreign Study: Students majoring in International Business are required to study outside the United States for a period of one semester, normally the spring semester of the academic year in which
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

	IBUS 310 is taken, at an approved institution. Exceptions to this requirement will be granted in cases of hardship. Students in regional cohort tracks meet the overseas study requirement at the cohort partner institution. Internationalization Requirement: All students in the Moore School must meet a three course (nine-credit hour) internationalization requirement. The curriculum of the International Business major satisfies this requirement.
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

3. COLLEGE OF MASS COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION STUDIES

School of Journalism and Mass Communications

Change in prerequisites/corequisites and description

- From: JOUR 533 Newspaper Feature Articles. (3) (Prereq: JOUR 333 and 335) Feature writing under deadline conditions. Print journalism majors must take concurrently with JOUR 529, 536, and 546 unless special permission from instructor.
- To: JOUR 533 Newspaper Feature Articles. (3) (Prereq: JOUR 532; Coreq: JOUR 529, 536, 546 or instructors permission) Feature writing under deadline conditions.
- From: JOUR 536 Advanced Reporting. (3) (Prereq: JOUR 333 and 335) Special areas of writing, such as science, medicine, business, the courts and research. Application of changing technology and new equipment. Print journalism majors must take concurrently with JOUR 529, 533, and 546 unless special permission from instructor.
- To: JOUR 536 Advanced Reporting. (3) (Prereq: JOUR 532; Coreq: JOUR 529, 533, 546 or instructor permission) Special areas of writing, such as science, medicine, business, the courts and research. Application of changing technology and new equipment.
- From: JOUR 546 Advanced Copyediting. (3) (Prereq: JOUR 333 and 335) Application of journalistic techniques in the production of School of Journalism and Mass Communications' publications. Lecture and laboratory. Print journalism majors must take concurrently with JOUR 529, 533, and 536 unless special permission from instructor.
- To: JOUR 546 Advanced Copyediting. (3) (Prereq: JOUR 532; Coreq: JOUR 529, 533, 536 or instructor permission) Application of journalistic techniques in the production of School of Journalism and Mass Communications' publications. Lecture and laboratory.

Change in title and description

- From: JOUR 542 Public Opinion and Propaganda. (3) Propaganda as persuasive

To: JOUR 542 communication; public opinion and its role in society.
Public Opinion and Persuasion. (3) Theory and practice of persuasive communication and the role of persuasion in shaping public opinion.

4. COLLEGE OF NURSING

Restrict following courses to College of Nursing students:

NURS 210 Facilitative Communication. (3)
NURS 212 Evolution of Nursing Science. (3)
NURS 216 Biophysical Pathology. (3)
NURS 220 Clinical Nutrition. (3)
NURS 226 Socio-Cultural Variations in Health and Illness. (3)
NURS 231 Foundations of Community Health Nursing. (3)

Spring 2011

NURS 313 Nursing Care of the Older Adult. (3)
NURS 327 Perioperative Nursing. (3)
NURS 398 Selected Topics. (3)
NURS 399 Independent Study. (1-6)
NURS 401 Introduction to Human Genetics for Health Care Professionals. (3)

Spring 2011

NURS 406 Critical Care Nursing of Adults. (3)
NURS 505 Caring for Limited English Proficient Patients. (3)
NURS 506 Special Topics in International Nursing. (3)
NURS 534 The Rural Interdisciplinary Practicum. (1-6)

Change in prerequisite and restrict course to Nursing students

From: NURS 504 Emergency Preparedness: Implications for Health Care Professionals. (3)
(Prereq: permission of professor for non-nursing students)

To: NURS 504 Emergency Preparedness: Implications for Health Care Professionals. (3)

From: NURS 553 In-Service Education. (3) (Prereq: consent of instructor)

To: NURS 553 In-Service Education. (3)

Change in course number and description

From: NURS 401 Introduction to Human Genetics for Health Care Professionals. (3)
(Prereq: admission into upper-division nursing) Human genetics and its application to healthcare.

To: NURS 201 Introduction to Human Genetics for Health Care Professionals. (3)
(Prereq: admission into upper-division nursing) A comprehensive introduction to the field of human genetics designed to raise nursing students' awareness of the role of genetics in all areas of medical care. A clinical approach and emphasis.

Fall 2011

Deletion

NURS 231 Foundations of Community Health Nursing. (3)
Fall 2011

5. ARNOLD SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTHA. Environmental Health Sciences*New courses

- ENHS 492 Special Topics in Environmental Health Sciences. (3) Issues and emerging themes in environmental health. May be repeated for a total of 9 credit hours as content varies by suffix and title.
- ENHS 671 From Air to Alveoli: Exposure Science. (3) A receptor-oriented approach for assessing human exposure to environmental contaminants by inhalation, dermal and ingestion routes. Covers methods for estimating exposures to protect health and well-being, to relate adverse effects to exposures, and to comply with regulations and guidelines.
- ENHS 675 Infectious Disease Ecology. (3) Ecological theories as the basis for environmental change and the (re)emergence of infectious agents that ultimately impact human and ecosystem health.

B. Exercise ScienceNew courses

- EXSC 620 Nutrition and Immunology. (3) (Prereq: EXSC 530) Examination of the interrelationships that link human nutrition to the immune system in health and disease. Topics will include basic immunology, overview of nutritional sources, deficiencies and excesses, and the impact on public health issues such as exercise, disease and aging.
- EXSC 666 Cardiorespiratory Exercise Physiology. (3) (Prereq: EXSC 530) Examination of the anatomy and function of the cardiovascular and respiratory systems of the exercising human organism, including acute adjustments and chronic adaptations to the systems.

C. Health Promotion, Education, and BehaviorNew courses

- HPEB 512 Southern Discomfort: Public Health in the American South. (3) Investigation of the unique health and disease profile of the American South, including regional disparities that remain unresolved despite a public health revolution. Topics range from endemic diseases of the antebellum period to the current HIV/AIDS crisis, and ethics of research.
- HPEB 620 Nutrition Through the Life Cycle. (3) (Prereq: HPEB 502 or equivalent introductory nutrition course) Examination of nutritional concerns, requirements, and metabolism from pre-conception through the aging process; analysis of cultural, environmental, psychosocial, physical, and economic factors affecting nutritional status through the life cycle; and methods for assuring adequate nutrition through dietary selection, promotion of healthy eating throughout the life cycle and nutritional assessment for each state of the life cycle.

D. Health Services Policy and Management

New courses

- HSPM 412 Health Economics. (3) Designed to serve as an introduction to economic principles and applications used in the health sector. The role economics plays in various aspects of health care, demand-side and supply-side factors and issues, how various health care systems are impacted.
- HSPM 491 Special Topics in Health Services Policy and Management. (3) Emerging issues in Health Services Policy and Management. May be repeated for a total of 6 credit hours as content varies by suffix and title.

6. SYSTEM AFFAIRS AND EXTENDED UNIVERSITY

Palmetto Programs

Addition of Distance Education Delivery to Existing Courses

- ENGL 439 Special Topics in English: Spiritual Autobiography. (3)
- HIST 401 Development of the American People to 1789. (3)