Faculty Senate

FROM: Brian R. Fry, Chair
Faculty Advisory Committee

DATE: March 17, 1994

RE: Actions of the Faculty Advisory Committee

The Faculty Advisory Committee took the following actions at its meeting on March 16th:

1. On the matter of scheduling University events, the Committee approved a motion that, "It shall be the policy of the University that there shall be no University-sponsored events requiring student participation on Reading Day or during the final examination period."
2. On the matter of the Confederate flag, the Committee approved a motion that states, "The Faculty Advisory Committee finds that there is no authorization, under the provisions of The Faculty Manual, for the Faculty Senate to direct the General Assembly on the matter of flying the Confederate battle flag."
