Ladies and Gentlemen of the Faculty:

On behalf of the Board of Trustees I would like to thank you for the excellent attendance at Winter Commencement Exercises last evening. Such a display of interest by the faculty in the importance of Commencement mirrors that shown by the Board.

I know our graduates and their families feel as proud as do members of the administration and the Board when the faculty are substantially represented when introduced. Your support and presence speak volumes about your commitment to making Carolina an improving teaching research University, and I want to thank you for this demonstration of your dedication to improving the quality of the academic experience for our students.

Sincerely,

C. Edward Floyd, M.D.
