To: Faculty Senate
From: Brian R. Fry, Chair
Subject: Faculty Budget Committee Annual Report

The Faculty Budget Committee met seven times during AY 1991-92. The Committee meetings were basically designed to better acquaint Committee members with University budgetary processes. During the year, the Committee met with:

- (1. David Bell, Assistant Vice President for Institutional Planning
- (2. Richard Wertz, Vice President for Business and Finance
- (3. Scott Reynolds, Director of Purchasing
- (4. Earl Holley, Budget Director
- (5. John Moore, Associate Director of Athletics
- (6. James Rex, Vice President of University Advancement
- (7. Tom Stepp, University Secretary
- (8. Ron Pearson, Director of the Koger Center
- (9. John Bolin, Director of the Carolina Coliseum

The Provost reported on the budget situation at each meeting.

A motion was passed at the December meeting calling for fuller involvement by the Committee in budgetary deliberations. The University administration subsequently approved and implemented the recommendations contained in the motion. At its March meeting, the Committee acknowledged its jurisdiction on academic planning matters for the Columbia campus. At the April meeting, the Committee agreed to consider reviewing the financial implications of degree proposals submitted to the Graduate Council. The details of this procedure will be worked out with the Graduate Council.
