

1987-1988 ANNUAL REPORT

OF

GRADE CHANGE COMMITTEE

The Grade Change Committee met five times during the spring and summer semesters. The committee members were: Professor Robert L. Beamer, Acting Chairman; Marjorie Goodwin, Anthropology; Gail Dickson, Nursing; Timothy E. Bledsoe, Government and International Studies; and Donald L. Siebert, English. Professor Willard E. Sharpe, who was on leave from the University, was replaced by Robert Beamer as chairman for the spring and summer.

Marjorie Goodwin completed her one-year term on the committee and Willard E. Sharpe his three-year term. Professors Lewis Johnson and Faust Pauluzzi were appointed to the committee for three-year terms.

The following table shows the grade change requests acted upon by the Committee between February 1988 and June 1988.

MONTHLY TOTALS	41	146	19	23	128	GRAND TOTAL 355

The Committee recommended 355 requested changes. The overwhelming majority of requests for grade changes were submitted because of computation or recording error on the part of the faculty members involved. Some requests were denied when the reasons for requesting the grade changes were contrary to the guidelines mandated by the Faculty Senate.
