The Dean of the USC's College of Education has been elected to the board of directors of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. Les Sternberg was nominated and elected in December to an at-large seat on the board, which comprises more than 800 leading educational professionals.

The group, with members in each state and the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, and American Samoa, is committed to being the best method to teaching kindergarten classes to lobby for bigger strides in education preparation in Washington, D.C.

The organization has been around for more than 50 years, and is most renowned for its work in doing justice relations and racial equality and educational policy. According to AACTE's Web site, its mission is to "promote the learning of all PK-12 [pre-Kindergarten through twelfth grade] students through high-quality, evidence-based teaching and learning for all school personnel."

Sternberg hopes to continue to get the university's goals and mission statement put into practice, the same way he did during his three-year term on the AACTE's board of directors.

"I am responsible, along with all of the organization, to ensure that a high quality of educational professionals are provided to society," Sternberg said.

"The AACTE is nationally known for its impact on Capitol Hill through its government relation committee. During his tenure on the board, Sternberg attended one of those one of two times or more board meetings each year. Sternberg is looking forward to learning about a multitude of courses and procedures," Sternberg said.

"I direct the wide-ranging goal of the AACTE," Sternberg said. "It's always great to have your Carolina community involved in helping efforts for Haiti will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Russell House Theater. A meeting for anyone in the USC community interested in organizing relief efforts for Haiti will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Russell House Theater."

The students and friends of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity attend a mountain retreat weekend. The chapter is looking for a charter this year.

Fraternity members eager to join campus

Theta Delta Chi makes preparations as it awaits charter

Elizabeth Kentman /THE DAILY GAMECOCK

Members of Theta Delta Chi, a fraternity not officially chartered on the campus, are pushing to gain the University's approval to become the first officially chartered fraternity on the campus, and a lot of other social fraternities already established at the University.

The USC chapter of Theta Delta Chi was founded in 1849, but was declared defunct on the campus due to Sherman's burning of Columbia during the Civil War. Now, after 18 active years, the hope is to officially call themselves a part of the Theta Delta Chi organization.

"We hope to show students at USC that brotherhood begins before you become a member of a place where you can always find someone that will reach out and be there for you," said Ian McMillan, a fourth-year management science student.

"It's always great to have your Carolina community involved in helping efforts for Haiti will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Russell House Theater. A meeting for anyone in the USC community interested in organizing relief efforts for Haiti will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Russell House Theater."

While he is happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors.

"I am happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors.

While he is happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors.

While he is happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors. Members of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity attend a mountain weekend retreat. The chapter is looking for a charter this year.

Fraternity members eager to join campus

Theta Delta Chi makes preparations as it awaits charter

Elizabeth Kentman /THE DAILY GAMECOCK

Members of Theta Delta Chi, a fraternity not officially chartered on the campus, are pushing to gain the University's approval to become the first officially chartered fraternity on the campus, and a lot of other social fraternities already established at the University.

The USC chapter of Theta Delta Chi was founded in 1849, but was declared defunct on the campus due to Sherman's burning of Columbia during the Civil War. Now, after 18 active years, the hope is to officially call themselves a part of the Theta Delta Chi organization.

"We hope to show students at USC that brotherhood begins before you become a member of a place where you can always find someone that will reach out and be there for you," said Ian McMillan, a fourth-year management science student.

"It's always great to have your Carolina community involved in helping efforts for Haiti will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Russell House Theater. A meeting for anyone in the USC community interested in organizing relief efforts for Haiti will be held today at 3 p.m. in the Russell House Theater."

While he is happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors.

While he is happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors.

While he is happy with the work that has already been done by the organization, Sternberg said he knows there is still a lot more to do.

"I am looking forward to everything ahead," he said. "You can never stop learning."

Sternberg was elected to AACTE's board of directors. Members of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity attend a mountain weekend retreat. The chapter is looking for a charter this year.
PIC OF THE DAY

The USC Dance Team performs during halftime during the LSU versus USC game Wednesday night. USC won the game 67-58 to improve to 2-0 in the SEC.

LOCAL & WORLD NEWS

LOCAL

Hearn sworn in as SC judge

Associate Justice Kaye Hearn was sworn in Thursday as the second woman ever to sit on South Carolina’s highest court.

“I guess I am living proof of the saying that good things come to those who wait,” Hearn, 56, said after she was sworn in during a special term of court. “I am on the Supreme Court today because I had friends who believed in me.”

Hearn was the only person on the ballot when state House and Senate members voted her in as the next justice during a joint session in May. Two other candidates had previously withdrawn, and Hearn had voted for and lost another open seat on the court to Don Breyti, who in May 2007 became the only second black to serve on the court.

South Carolina is the only state where lawmakers alone select judges. Hearn replaces retiring Justice John Waller of Marion, whose term expires in 2012.

NATIONAL

Cigarette ruling challenged

A federal judge says the Food and Drug Administration overstepped its authority in recent efforts to regulate electronic cigarettes.

A ruling by U.S. District Court Judge Richard Leon handed down Thursday rules with two electronic cigarette suppliers, Smoking Everywhere and NBBY, in their lawsuit against the FDA.

The companies said the government after regulators began halting shipments of electronic cigarettes last year. The FDA said it found cancer-causing ingredients in the products, despite manufacturers’ claims that the products are safer than tobacco cigarettes.

Electronic cigarettes use a battery-operated vaporizer to produce a nicotine mist that simulates smoking. Manufacturers have touted the products as a healthier alternative to smoking because there is no burning involved.

INTERNATIONAL

Red Cross boosts registration

More than 5,000 people registered on a special Red Cross Web site a few hours after it was launched to help Haitians find loved ones missing in the earthquake, an official said Thursday.

The quick response was aided by people spreading the link on social networks such as Facebook and Twitter, but also by the fact that many satellite Internet connections in the Caribbean nation appear to be working, said Marcal Izard, a spokesman for the official said Thursday.

“The list is growing rapidly. We now have around 5,000 names on it,” Izard told The Associated Press.

TODAY IN HISTORY

1865

Fort Fisher in North Carolina falls to Union forces, and Wilmington, the Confederacy’s most important blockade-running port, is closed.

The first recorded use of a donkey to represent the Democratic Party appears in Harper’s Weekly.

FEB. 1

1919

Fiery hot molasses floods the streets of Boston on this day in 1919, killing 21 people and injuring scores of others.

1933

1996

A passer-by filmed the bobbies goofing around on a snowy hill in Oxford and posted the clip on YouTube. It shows a policeman haranguing downhill while another shouts, “Whatever happens, keep smiling!”

Rick Latham, who filmed the scene on Tuesday, said he was pleasantly surprised by the officers’ actions. He thought they were going to scold him for trying to slide down the hill in a kayak.

Thomas Valley Police Superintendent Andrew Murray said Thursday he had told the officers “that teasing something on duty, on police equipment and at taxpayers’ expense is a very bad idea.”

But he added that snow brings “out the child in all of us.”

WEIRD HEADLINES

Hundreds strip for ‘no pants’ subway stunt

NEW YORK — Hundreds of New Yorkers rode the city’s subway trains in their underwear on Sunday.

The event started in 2002 with just seven people. It has spread to other cities. The stunt was organized by Improv Everywhere, a group that says its mission is to cause “scenes of chaos and joy in public places.”

Today in the Gamecock

Today, I went to school, passed my exams and SAVED A LIFE.

Today, we went to school, passed our exams and SAVED A LIFE.

Following us on Twitter

The Daily Gamecock

Sun., Jan. 17

Become a fan of The Daily Gamecock

YouTube channel: TDG_Sports

Music: gamecockmix

Facebook

Become a fan of The Daily Gamecock
THE BURRITO HAS LANDED.

TODAY, Friday, January 15th, from 11am-10pm, is our GRANDE OPENING:

Come by and register to WIN BURRITOS FOR A YEAR.

The first 100 customers to buy a burrito after 3pm will receive a FREE T-SHIRT and a card good for a FREE BURRITO on a future visit.

Place an iPhone or online order anytime on grand opening day and we’ll hook you up with a buy-one/get-one card good for a future visit.
Temporary coverage cut for workers fired for good cause

Jim Davenport

South Carolina workers will have a harder time getting unemployment benefits if they're fired for good reasons under legislation approved Thursday.

With a 112-1 vote, the House easily approved a first swipe at overhauling the South Carolina Employment Security Commission, the agency that pays jobless benefits and funds people's work. Gov. Mark Sanford and legislators failed in a bid to do that last year as the unemployment trust fund went broke.

Now, as states scramble for ways to reduce federal borrowing that businesses will have to repay, legislators are more eager to act.

The House approved a temporary law change that makes it clear the state will not pay jobless benefits to workers when, among other things, employers prove workers intentionally or recklessly damage property worth more than $200; take or have illegal drugs; have blood-alcohol levels of .08 percent; sleep on the job or have illegal drugs; have blood-alcohol levels of .08 percent; sleep on the job or have illegal drugs; have blood-alcohol levels of .08 percent; sleep on the job or have illegal drugs.

The House approved legislation that makes it clear the state will not pay jobless benefits if workers fired for good cause.

Gov. Mark Sanford, D-West Columbia, said Thursday that the measure, moving to the Senate Friday, is only temporary. Legislators plan to pass permanent law changes after a Legislative Audit Council examination of the agency is released this month.

"It made no sense to continue on with obvious, glaring errors we saw existed," House Majority Leader Kenny Bingham, R-West Columbia, said. "Bingham said the legislation isn't an effort to simply crack down on workers. He notes it also stops the practice of employers filing benefits on behalf of their workers when they have temporary plant shutdowns.

While workers will still be able to collect benefits, Bingham notes they'll have to show they're looking for work. That, Bingham said, could discourage the temporary shutdowns because employers would face the risk their workers would find new jobs.

"We don't eliminate benefits to people who have a sickness," Howard said. "We think it is the one that is most fair," Bingham said. "I think it is the one that is most fair," Bingham said. "I think it is the one that is most fair."
any closer & you’d be sleeping in class

new low rates | now leasing for Fall 2010

uoaks.com
803.252.2634
21 NATIONAL GUARD RD

AN AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITY
US demand for pot funds drug cartels

If you've ever taken a class the that demands mastery, you know that a T-shirt is much more than just a shirt. It has to do with the work you do in that shirt, and not necessarily the shirt itself. If you buy a T-shirt, you're making a child labor involved? These are the questions that come to all of the workers in the factories that produce our clothing, and not just the legal ones. Last week, an unassembled Mexican drug cartel decided to intimidate the rival Juarez cartel by skinning 36-year-old Hugo Hernandez alive and beaching him onto a soccer ball. The ball was then left in a public plaza in Los Mochis, Mexico. The rest of his body was laid into aursity, but not just for the social implications behind a T-shirt stained in Thailand, it is not significant to understand how the clothing you wear affects your life. The U.S. make more money from this drug trade is very much so, although 10 years later I now know that it wasn't because he lifted weights a lot. Of course, if I'm going to speak about recent sports superstar controversies, I have to bring up one pick I must say that I was really surprised that the knowledge of Tiger Woods' infidelity is as much more women than Ron Jeremy, and I think I'm more disappointed in him than McGwire, despite that his transgressions have nothing to do with his God-given talent. We owe him and Mr. McGwire a round of applause as their images are huge. Without that stardom comes an enormous free fall from grace as incredible are or were in every sense of the word. Their performances or are or were credible as their images are huge. Will that stardom, comes an understanding that they are going to be held to a much higher standard than any normal human being will. We need to respect more of them, with fewer mistakes in judgment and characters, we can and will forgive them because of who they are, although I don't doubt that other things that they have been less than highly regarded by anyone. I suppose that what has always been going on, is the fact that for most of the childhood heroes that let you down in so many ways. Many of these sports stars are idols for our children, who are as much in awe as we once were. And what are Tiger, McGwire, Williams and Agassi telling them? Things I would prefer they didn't. All I hope is that Tiger's enormous fame, fall from grace is enough to show the younger generations that it doesn't matter what you are anymore, it's just saving the life would save the world.
Fashion fit for 2010

AMBER HASE

1. Stripes and florals mixed in one outfit is a trend for spring that has shown up both on runways and in features in Glamour and Teen Vogue. This may seem odd at first glance and is definitely a little daring, but it is putting a new spin on two classics. This is a way to try out the trend of dark polish without all that shine. But beware, this polish dries quickly and tends to not last as long as regular polish. For those loving the recurring neon trend, there are also shades like a bright apple green and hot pinks as well.

2. Pairing sequins with the basics tones down the sequin hype of the fall season. Pairing a simple sequined top with layers such as a solid cardigan and ripped light jeans are a way to take a little glitz from night to a daily wardrobe.

3. Matte nail polish has replaced the shine of former seasons. The OPI brand recently re-released several of their most popular shades in matte editions, including Lincoln Park After Dark and Russian Navy, in new matte editions. This is a way to try out the trend of dark polish without all that shine. But beware, this polish dries quickly and tends to not last as long as regular polish. For those loving the recurring neon trend, there are also shades like a bright apple green and hot pinks as well.

4. Military chic influenced the spring runways of Balmain, Burberry and Alexander Wang. The military jacket is necessary to pull off this look, and they come in neutral greens, tans and grays. It can be paired with short skirts, jeans and even leather pants for the daring. Tall, strappy heels add a bit of edge to the look.

5. Neutral colors have swept the collections of many designers. The classic white shirt paired with a pair of tan shorts is a simple way to incorporate this style into an everyday look. This look is about bare, minimalist style, so don’t over-accessorize.

6. Messenger bags have infiltrated runways, replacing oversized totes. These bags have made it into the collection of high-end designers like 3.1 Phillip Lim and lower-end designers like Nine West. This versatile piece is easily worn with the strap across the body or not. These bags are best used when only the essentials are needed.

7. Animal print is a trend that always seems to come back. A popular take on this trend is trying it in a neon hue. Bright contrasting prints are a key feature of many spring trends.

8. Blazers are a classic staple that should be a part of every girl’s wardrobe. These aren’t just for work - they can be paired with a classic white T-shirt and a pair of jeans. For those who want to make a statement, it can be worn over a bright dress for some edge.

9. Classic black and white is a trend that never goes out of style. This versatile trend can be showcased on a printed dress, or a handbag for just a touch of the look. One great outfit to try is pairing a white ruffled top with a black pencil skirt to put a little class into a spring wardrobe. This trend is great for any Gamecock girl, with garnet accessories of course.

Comments on this story?
E-mail sagcketc@mailbox.sc.edu learn well + live well

private bedrooms storage closets upgraded fitness center

apply today for Fall 2010
PhD

Inside the Box
By Marlowe Leverette / The Daily Gamecock

TOday

John Conahan Band w/ Bobby Hock
8 p.m., $12 in advance, $15 day of show
The White Mule, 1530 Main St.

Columbia Baroque Soloists Present "The Glory of Italy"
7 p.m., $10, $7 students
Shandon United Methodist Church, 1407 Devine St.

Youth America Grand Prix Dance Competition
7:30 p.m. free
Drayton Hall Theatre, 1214 College St.

The Scene

CROSSWORD

SUDOKU

Level 1

How to Play
Complete the grid so each row, column, and 3-by-3 box has all of the digits 1 to 9.

Solution from 01/14/10

01/15/10

The Scene

SCHEMES

01/15/10

Columbia Charlotte Shuttle
"The Charlotte airport just got classier."
$49 each way • Pick up/drop off at USC www.columbiacharlotteshuttle.com (803) 704-4101

By Jorge Chan

Define your goal
When you ask practical questions.
Doubt and illusion shifts as the day goes along.

What starts out filled with doubts and illusion shifts when you ask practical questions.

Aries
The solar eclipse focuses your thinking on career and social matters. An important person enters your life.

Taurus
You and a partner seek practical means to achieve lofty goals. After today, you will know which road to take.

Gemini
Many issues that were unclear yesterday suddenly are illuminated. Practical words from older people carry you in an independent direction.

Libra
You communicate your ideas far more clearly now. Others grasp the concept much better as the day goes along.

Sagittarius
You feel like you’re in the dark when the day begins. Someone close to you sheds light on your situation.

Scorpio
Pay attention to friends and family all day. Take their phone calls and tell them you love them. You can’t overstate that. Try a new restaurant.

Capricorn
Practical words from older people carry you in an independent direction.

Aquarius
You and a close group of associates have your fingers crossed the day goes well. What starts out filled with doubts and illusion shifts when you ask practical questions.

Pisces
Someone wants to rain on your parade. In fact, expect a parade. In fact, expect a parade.

Solution for 01/14/10

ACROSS
1. "Handkerchief"
2. "That's my dad."
3. "Buster?"
4. "Bollywood"
5. "Bobby Hock"
6. "Birds"
7. "Rabbits"
8. "Pole"
9. "Barber"
10. "Paris"
11. "Johnson"
12. "Juliet"
13. "Arthur"
14. "Richard"
15. "Bono"
16. "John"
17. "Jill"
20. "Engaged"
21. "March"
22. "Rye"
23. "Caveman"
24. "Cavetown"
25. "Lone"
26. "Leg"
27. "Heavyweight"
28. "Hello"
29. "Aston"
30. "Bald"
31. "Dance"
32. "Dive"
33. "Radar"
34. "Track"
35. "Tun"n"
36. "Mayo"
37. "Bowl"
38. "Mall"
39. "Dodge"
40. "Duty"
41. "Wheels"
42. "Context"
43. "Sanitation"
44. "Beans"
45. "Rural"
46. "Going"
47. "Comic strip cry"
48. "Slugs"
49. "Exaggerated"
50. "Out"
51. "Aston"
52. "Chin"
53. "In""\n54. "Tape"
55. "Role"
56. "Mandela’s org."
57. "Attitude"
58. "Starts"
59. "Motion"
60. "Dash for a"
61. "Restaurant row?"
62. "Dash for a"
63. "Square up with"
64. "Monogram"
65. "Tarzan creator’s abbr."
66. "Bride"
67. "Elixir"
68. "Tomato"
69. "Road"
70. "Underwater"
71. "Gale duet"
72. "1982 Eddie"
73. "FDR’s successor"
74. "Go kaput"
75. "Ref. work"
76. "Cliche"
77. "3-year end"
78. "Dissipated"
79. "Lose"
80. "Deserted"

DOWN
1. "Bload"
2. "Widow"
3. "Federico"
4. "Monogram"
5. "Hair"
6. "Silverware"
7. "Rabbitt/Crystal"
8. "Reba"
9. "Cowl"
10. "Sentry"
11. "Cable car"
12. "Shades of"
13. "Mayo is in it"
14. "Old Ford"
15. "Small batteries"
16. "Communist"
17. "Frolic"
18. "They can fix slips"
19. "Elixir"
20. "Bars"
21. "Toro, in sushi"
22. "Terror of sorts"
23. "Neck and neck"
24. "Bust"
25. "Monogram"
26. "Mexico"
27. "City limits"
28. "McDonald’s""\n29. "Date"
30. "Fighting"
31. "Fearless"
32. "Love that"
33. "New Look"
34. "Music store?"
35. "Strongboxes"
36. "Faultfinding"
37. "Asian border"
38. "1902 Eddie"
39. "At rest"
40. "Shade providers"
41. "1982 Eddie"
42. "Road"
43. "Bald"
44. "1982 Eddie"
45. "Houston""\n46. "First-year law"
47. "Contribute"
48. "Surely"
49. "Another"
50. "1902 Eddie"
51. "Relief"
52. "Voting"
53. "Gale duet"
54. "Monogram"
55. "Mandela’s org."
56. "Mandela’s org."
57. "Sweat"
58. "Shall"
59. "Sail"
60. "Dodge"
61. "Restaurant row?"
62. "Dash for a"
63. "Square up with"
64. "Monogram"
65. "Tarzan creator’s abbr."
66. "Bride"
67. "Elixir"
68. "Tomato"
69. "Road"
70. "Underwater"
71. "Gale duet"
72. "1982 Eddie"
73. "FDR’s successor"
74. "Go kaput"
75. "Ref. work"
76. "Cliche"
77. "3-year end"
78. "Dissipated"
79. "Lose"
80. "Deserted"

Solution from 01/14/10

1. "Handkerchief"
2. "That’s my dad."
3. "Buster?"
4. "Bollywood"
5. "Bobby Hock"
6. "Birds"
7. "Rabbits"
8. "Pole"
9. "Barber"
10. "Paris"
11. "Johnson"
12. "Juliet"
13. "Arthur"
14. "Richard"
15. "Bono"
16. "John"
17. "Jill"
18. "1967"
19. "accuracy"
20. "Engaged"
21. "March"
22. "Rye"
23. "Caveman"
24. "Cavetown"
25. "Lone"
26. "Leg"
27. "Heavyweight"
28. "Hello"
29. "Aston"
30. "Bald"
31. "Dance"
32. "Dive"
33. "Radar"
34. "Track"
35. "Tun"n"
36. "Mayo"
37. "Bowl"
38. "Mall"
39. "Dodge"
40. "Duty"
41. "Wheels"
42. "Context"
43. "Sanitation"
44. "Beans"
45. "Rural"
46. "Going"
47. "Comic strip cry"
48. "Slugs"
49. "Exaggerated"
50. "Out"
51. "Aston"
52. "Chin"
53. "In"
54. "Tape"
55. "Role"
56. "Mandela’s org."
57. "Attitude"
58. "Starts"
59. "Motion"
60. "Dash for a"
61. "Restaurant row?"
62. "Dash for a"
63. "Square up with"
64. "Monogram"
65. "Tarzan creator’s abbr."
66. "Bride"
67. "Elixir"
68. "Tomato"
69. "Road"
70. "Underwater"
71. "Gale duet"
72. "1982 Eddie"
73. "FDR’s successor"
74. "Go kaput"
75. "Ref. work"
76. "Cliche"
77. "3-year end"
78. "Dissipated"
79. "Lose"
80. "Deserted"

Crossword

Each word contains every digit 1 to 9.
I ❤️ C HOOPS
Show the love, wear the gear.

“\[\text{I don’t know who y’all have as player of the game, but I have our crowd. I thought they were tremendous in the second half run, especially our students.}\]”

– Coach Horn
Spurrier introduces Elliott

Ryan Velazquez

With the 2009 football season in the books, the only thing left for teams to do is now start making improvements and begin working toward becoming better in 2010. Yesterday afternoon, South Carolina took a big step toward that goal by introducing Shawn Elliott as the new offensive line coach.

“It’s such a great opportunity to come to South Carolina and to coach Carolina and have this chance to contribute to the SEC with the best offensive line in the country. It’s a great opportunity,” Elliott said. “I never thought this would be the situation where I would be an NCAA head coach, and I’m thrilled.”

Swarthmore athlete from the upcoming season.

A native of Camden, Elliott has been the offensive line coach at Appalachian State since 2001. During his time there, he was a part of three national championship teams, coached three Southern Conference Jacobs Blocking Trophy winners and built one of the top offensive lines in the country.

“For a believer in perfect technique, if you’re going to have the best offensive line on the field on any one day, they’ve got to be great technicians,” Elliott said. “They’ve got to have a lot of fight in them, too. They’ve got to have their perfect technique, but we also have to play with great passion.”

Elliott’s new offensive line was that plagued with inconsistencies in recent years, most recently in the Papajohns.com Bowl. After that Elliott was the former offensive line coach Eric Wells. It was after the fact that Elliott contacted head coach Steve Spurrier and offered his assistance.

“I’ve got great emotion and I love to play with great emotion. Sitting on my couch watching the bowl game, that appeared to be a big asset and it didn’t look like they were having a lot of fun,” Elliott said. “I think I can incorporate the passion, heart, and desire they had to go out there and win. I don’t know if they’re lacking that or not, but when they go to move the football, I said, ‘Those guys are going to be fighting for somebody to leaf them.’ And ultimately I wanted that to be me.”

Growing up outside of Columbia, Elliott is no stranger to the Gamecocks’ fan base. “I was a Carolina fan when I was little,” Elliott said. “I had a lot of friends down there and it’s a very special place. In fact, I have a lot of friends there that I go back to see a lot.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

LADY GAMECOCKS EDGE WILDCATS

Bones’ domination in the paint leads to big Carolina victory

James Krutch

Jawbone Williams and the Gamecocks edged the Frankston Wild Commercial by 77-75 on Wednesday night at the Colonial Life Arena.

Freshman center Kelsey Bone was the tallest player on the floor by far, and it showed. The Houston, Tex. native had a stifling night, picking up 21 points and nine boards.

“Her versatility,” South Carolina head coach Dawn Staley said. “I don’t know who y’all have as player of the year, but she’s the player of the year for us. She was the best offensive line on the field on any one day, we’ve got to be great technicians,” Elliott said. “They’ve got to have a lot of fight in them, too. They’ve got to have their perfect technique, but we also have to play with great passion.”

Elliott’s new offensive line was that plagued with inconsistencies in recent years, most recently in the Papajohns.com Bowl. After that Elliott was the former offensive line coach Eric Wells. It was after the fact that Elliott contacted head coach Steve Spurrier and offered his assistance.

“I’ve got great emotion and I love to play with great emotion. Sitting on my couch watching the bowl game, that appeared to be a big asset and it didn’t look like they were having a lot of fun,” Elliott said. “I think I can incorporate the passion, heart, and desire they had to go out there and win. I don’t know if they’re lacking that or not, but when they go to move the football, I said, ‘Those guys are going to be fighting for somebody to leaf them.’ And ultimately I wanted that to be me.”

Growing up outside of Columbia, Elliott is no stranger to the Gamecocks’ fan base. “I was a Carolina fan when I was little,” Elliott said. “I had a lot of friends down there and it’s a very special place. In fact, I have a lot of friends there that I go back to see a lot.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.

“Wes played a great game, we’ve got to get it on the field when we need it,” Elliott said. “I think he’s got a lot of fight in him.”

Elliott’s hire was immediately followed by a promotion of current offensive coordinator Sam Bennett to head coach.

“Being an offensive line coach is a lot like being a defensive coordinator. If you’re not very good at it, you don’t stay there for a very long time,” Spurrier said. “Obviously, Shawn has a track record and his guys have been very successful for him. We’re bringing him in to hopefully rub a lot of that off on our football program as well as here. We’re thrilled he’s with us.”

South Carolina head football coach Steve Spurrier speaks to the media.
Apartment
00011344
Fully furnished room in spacious house on lake in Forest Acres. Own BR w/granite countertops! Avail immediate. Access to kitchen laundry outside patio & grill. Rec Room w/lg flat screened TV & Internet. USC Alumna $425/mo. Call 608-1345 or email cook.laura@gmail.com.

1-5 BR Apts For Rent @ USC 318-0800 or rajaluri@aeliusa.com

ON A BUDGET? Come to Cornell Arms Apts. 2BR for $750 which includes all utilities, electric, water, cable, and internet. No Security Deposit. Call Glenn 799-1442.

Roommates
Room for Rent - 333 Heyward St. $450mo + 1/3 of util. Great location across from Granby Mills. Call Craig Jr. @ 803-556-2569 or 803-750-4848 for more info.

Large home 3,000+ sq ft private BR & BA on separate level. $350/mo + util. 791-7654. M/rmmte needed for Apt close to USC. Take over lease $379 util included. Available NOW! 843-992-4320.

Housing-Rent
3BR 1BA $1050 Huge Lot Rosewood CH&A updated kit dogs/cats OK fenced in big backyard. 600-7219

2BR 2.5 Bush River & I-26 Townhouse jmlprops.com 948-8033

1-2-3-5BR Houses $345-$1395 Shandon Area Available Now 318-0729

3BR 1.5BA S.Waccamaw Duplex 2.3 miles from USC, CH&A w/dh hookups like new hdwd fl water provided. $640/mo Plus SD. Call 740-1305

Renovated 3BR 2BA in Forest Acres. Harrison Rd behind Zestos on Forest Drive $950. 205-441-9442.

3BR 2.5BA approx 1700 sq ft. all appl. insulated windows. $975/mo. Call for more info 799-0123

For Sale

Travel

 Baptismal Gown - Baptismal gowns for girls and boys. Gowns are made of 100% cotton and are fully lined. Size 0 to 3 months. $30 each. Contact Dr. Sarah Davis at 803-326-8420 for more information.