FROM THE EDITOR

With this issue, the Joseph Ruzicka Co. will cease publication of this journal. Since its inception some 25 years ago, Ruzicka has published, mailed, and paid all expenses for the South Carolina Librarian. But 25 years is a long time to support a dependent child, as parents know. The child grows, appetites increase, and costs go up, up, up. Sooner or later (in this case later) the child must stand on its own two feet and assume its full responsibilities. That time is now.

We thank Mr. Ruzicka for his gracious and generous support—support which cannot be measured in dollars and cents—support which we know we will always have. We also thank Mr. Bachtell, our business manager, who had all the headaches of getting the journal from the printers to the readers, and did such a wonderful job.

As we begin this new era for our publication, the challenge will be greater than ever, but, in meeting this challenge, we will be a professional publication in every sense of the word.

This move should have come years ago at our initiative.

What have you done to further the cause of librarianship recently? Sure, you’ve paid your association dues, taken part on committees or programs. But there is something else that you should be doing to strengthen and build the profession for the future.

A strong active library association is the best answer to many of the problems you are facing, especially those which you can not solve alone. Yet, the strength of an organization is in proportion to its membership. Unless most eligibles join the ranks, any group is below par in effectiveness. Their absence deprives the association of needed funds and manpower.

Building membership is a challenge to each and every individual member. Everyone should accept it as a primary responsibility.

Conferences are vital in building new membership because potential members can attend to get an inside look. They can size up an organization in terms of benefits to be gained from belonging and participating in it.

So please, when making plans to go to your next library conference, consider taking a younger or less experienced staff member with you. Besides thinking how the schedule is going to be covered or how much expense money you can collect, think of how you are helping to build the association for the future. This is something tangible you can do to help your association as well as to inspire your own staff into doing a better job. Try it soon.

Editorial Policy of the South Carolina Librarian

The South Carolina Librarian is concerned primarily with informing the library world of South Carolina about the many and varied aspects of librarianship within the State. The editor will serve as the local screening agent to determine what may be useful and important to report beyond the State and to see that such material is placed judiciously where it best serves the interests of the State and the library profession.

The following items are judged to be appropriate for the South Carolina Librarian.

1. The records of the South Carolina Library Association. Names of officers and committee appointments, the constitution and by laws and changes thereto, such records of meetings as may be desired.

2. Announcements of meetings, programs, institutes, awards, etc. of library associations within the State. Others beyond the State, when they are particularly relevant (e.g. SELA).

4. Bibliographical notes on in-state or local publications of interest to libraries.

5. Short articles, long articles or abstracts of papers, depending upon available space and particularly when they are in-state oriented.

6. Membership list—separate or integral.

8. Library history, intra-state.

ADOPTED ON APRIL 16, 1791 BY THE EDITORIAL BOARD OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIAN, APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION ON APRIL 17, 1971.

FALL 1971

A. L. A. COUNCILOR'S REPORT

By Marguerite G. Thompson

President Lillian Bradshaw followed in the footsteps of the 1969-70 president, William S. Dix, by presiding superbly and graciously at the 90th ALA Conference in Dallas, June 20-26. In recognition of this fact, she was given a standing ovation by Council at the close of its final session. The South Carolina Library Association is fortunate in having her to speak at one of the General Sessions of our biennial convention in October.

Mrs. Bradshaw noted in her report to Council that she had found 1970-71 a busy year with "questions to be asked and answers to be found" and reaffirmed that the ACONDA and ANACONDA reports were special items that must be dealt with during the Dallas conference. Paying high tribute to the ALA Washington office for its great strides under the leadership of Germaine Krettek, she noted that this office is now in its 25th year of operation. (SCLA is also honored to have Miss Krettek as a speaker for our October convention.)

President-Elect Keith Doms announced, following Treasurer McGarver's report at the first General Session, that the 1971-72 budget would not permit "business as usual" because of major cutbacks. He gave several reasons why the Association would carry over a smaller balance for 1971-72 than it did for 1970-71: (1) ALA has been leaning on publishing funds, (2) our lateness in getting around to raising dues, (3) real proliferation of ALA programs, (4) some decrease in grant funds, and (5) decrease in funds raised by conferences. "We will be flying on a wing and a prayer," he confided.

In a compromise resolution, the Activities Committee on New Directions for ALA recommended retaining Chapter councilors by proposing that "Council be composed of 100 members, elected at large, with 25 elected each year for a term of four years; plus one councilor representing each Chapter, to be elected for a term of four years by the ALA members in the Chapter; plus the members of the Executive Board." Council approved the motion. Following this action, we approved a policy statement to provide for the expiration of all 1971-72 Council members at the end of the 1972 conference and to instruct the 1972-73 nominating committee and the individual Chapters to proceed with nominations for the 1972-73 ALA Council members.

Council also passed the long-debated ACONDA proposal that "a study be made by a skilled consultant or consultants, using the criteria developed by ACONDA as a basis for evaluation of possible plans for the reorganization of ALA." Regarding procedures of the study, approval was given to ACONDA's option 2, that an experienced library leader head the study.

The ACONDA recommendation concerning the development of a communications program by ALA staff was deferred until the study is completed.

The ANACONDA recommendation on manpower was approved by Council. Therefore, a new office of Library Manpower will combine all of ALA's activities relating to library education and training, recruitment, and personnel utilization and concerns.

Rutherford Rogers, chairman of the Executive Director Search Committee, reported receiving 130 nominations for the post. Selection of the new ALA Executive Director is to be made no later than the 1972 Midwinter Meeting.

A resolution was referred to the Committee on Organization which would give greater involvement to Council in Association affairs.

Highlights of other Council action included resolutions . . . to direct ALA support and activities toward participation in International Book Year, 1972 . . . to confer honorary membership on Ralph R. Shaw and Sir Frank Francis . . . to establish a staff committee on Mediation, Arbitration, and Inquiry to carry out a program of action in conjunction with a Committee on Policy and Implementation . . . to accept the Intellectual Freedom Statement on Labeling . . . to recommend that the proposed Office for Library Service to the Disadvantaged and the Unserved be funded in the 1971-72 budget, noting that this office was set as a priority item by the Detroit conference last summer . . . to implement the Minorities Recruitment Program . . . and to combat strenuously discrimination of employment of individuals of all minority groups.

The 90th Conference was to me an invigorating one because so much was accomplished in the small period of one week. With four membership meetings plus one other to discuss specifically the ACONDA and ANACONDA reports, membership was given ample opportunity to talk, to express opinions, to attempt to persuade other members, and to cast their votes. This fact, plus firm enforcement of ground rules adopted at the first Conference meetings, gave Council more time to clarify issues and to make decisions expeditiously.

At the risk of the Editor's deleting this final paragraph, I'll tell you that upon returning home I enjoyed brief prominence among Florence county library readers because I had brought back with me autographed good wishes from authors Betsy Byars, Eric Segal, John Creasey, Monro Leaf, Tasha Tudor, and Brian Wildsmith.

SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
Executive Committee Meeting

The Executive Committee of the South Carolina Library Association met on February 6, 1971 at 10: 30 a.m. in the Meeting Room of the Richland County Public Library. Members present included J. Mitchell Reames, Mrs. Elizabeth Foran, Mrs. Marguerite Thompson, Miss Barbara Williams, Mrs. Ruth Gregg, Dr. L. A. Schneider, Mrs. J. Frank Nolen, Col. James M. Hillard, Mrs. Betty Ragsdale, Mrs. Lester E. Duncan, Jr., and Mr. Barrett Wilkins representing Miss Elizabeth Champion, and Mrs. Margaret W. Ehrhardt. Absent was Mrs. Paul J. Jones.

The meeting was called to order by the President, J. Mitchell Reames. The minutes of the December meeting were corrected and approved.

TREASURER'S REPORT: The treasurer distributed to members copies of his report dated January 31, 1971, and the accountant's report for the year ending December 31, 1970 was given to the secretary for the files.

Col. Hillard reported that present membership is 490, 70 more than last year at this time. He also moved that the bonding of the treasurer be raised to $10,000. Mrs. Foran seconded and the vote carried. Col. Hillard requested that documentary evidence of expenses be submitted by representatives to ALA and SELA.

President Reames raised the question of an increase in the mileage rate for members of the executive committee. Mrs. Foran moved that the mileage for committee members be increased to ten cents a mile effective now (amended to read January 7). Mrs. Gregg seconded and the vote carried. Col. Hillard asked to be authorized to exceed the budgeted $350 if this becomes necessary. He was authorized to do so.

ALAB COUNCILOR'S REPORT: Mrs. Thompson reported on the Midwinter Meeting of ALA held in Los Angeles in January. She gave a report on a Survey of Chapter Relationships Within the ALA, which was prepared by Grace Stevenson. The Survey noted that librarians know very little about ALA and recommended that members be better informed. It also noted the need for continuing education at all levels, the need for more active programs, and the need for paid secretarial assistance in all departments.

She also stated that action on the ACONDA report had been postponed until the annual convention in Dallas.

She reported that the motion concerning chapter-council relationships had been declared null and void.

Closed meetings were opened to all members by resolution.

She reported that the policy of the American Library Association on confidential records (that library records should remain confidential unless requested by the government in investigations) had been accepted.

ALA is still fighting for librarians with regard to the copyright bill.

A resolution requiring all chapters to have Intellectual Freedom Committees was referred to the Committee on Chapter Relationships.

ALA members are encouraged to contribute to the Scholarship Fund.

Organizational bulletins will be sent to all members this year.

Mrs. Thompson reported that she felt the new members are working better to restructure, not to overthrow ALA. There was some discussion of having outside experts work with the ACONDA Committee.

President Reames noted that he had asked a committee to study SCLA.

Mrs. Thompson recommended a part-time executive secretary for the association.

SELA REPRESENTATIVE'S REPORT: Mrs. Foran reported that she plans to attend the off year workshop on March 7 in Atlanta. She thanked the committee for the suggestions made for committee members (See Minutes December 5, 1970.) and will accept any other suggestions.

SECTION CHAIRMEN REPORTS:

THE SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIAN, Editor: Mr. Duncan reported that the next issue of the SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIAN will be mailed to the membership in March.

President Reames advised that the printing of the Constitution in the SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIAN will be postponed until the committee studying the Constitution can present a revised version.

Mr. Duncan reported that he will attend the meeting of editors in Atlanta on March 7. The SCLA will pay for his transportation; other expenses will be paid by SELA. Col. Hillard requested a motion concerning Mr. Duncan's travel expenses.

Mrs. Foran moved that the editor's travel expenses to the March meeting be paid by the association. Miss Williams seconded and the motion carried.

JUNIOR MEMBERS ROUND TABLE: Mr. Wilkins reported for Miss Champion that this section is currently working on a format for the fall sectional meeting. New officers include Gail Campbell, Secretary; Libby Law, Entertainment Chairman; and Gail Perry, Project Chairman.

Plans for the fall convention have been discussed and the section will request a booth. It is planned to have a representative from the national association as the speaker. Mr. Wilkins noted that JMRIT in South Carolina is better organized than in some of the other states.

Mr. Wilkins also reported that JMRIT would like to amend Article 4, Section 2 of its by-laws changing the term of the officers from a two-year term to a one-year term. Col. Hillard questioned whether this was a round table or a section. He thinks they should be a round table. President Reames reported that the JMRIT is a section (See Minutes September 12, 1970, SECTION CHAIRMEN REPORTS.) This brings up the question of whether members can belong to more than one section. There was a discussion of methods of the listing of members in the directory. The president read from a letter he had written in April, 1970, calling the JMRIT a section, and he noted that the budget also lists the JMRIT as a section.

President Reames asked if the Executive Committee wished to consider the JMRIT as a round table and not a section since ambiguity exists in the by-laws concerning round tables and sections. Mrs. Thompson asked if the motion could be tabled until the Constitution Committee presents a new constitution. Mr. Reames asked Mr. Wilkins if his group would be willing to do this. Dr. Schneider asked if this could be considered at the fall convention.

The president suggested that this question could be referred to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee, and taken up at the first General Session so that the question could be resolved early in the convention and not affect the JMRT meeting which would come later.

Mr. Wilkins made a motion that the Executive Committee refer the question of the proposed change in the by-laws of JMRT to the Constitution Committee with the request that the Constitution Committee of SCLA prepare a revision to accommodate the JMRT request. Mrs. Foran seconded and the vote carried.

PUBLIC: Mrs. Ragsdale reported on the combined meeting of the Public and Trustee Sections scheduled for March 24 at the Sheraton Inn in Columbia.

SCHOOL: Mrs. Gregg reported the success of the regional workshops held in the fall and expressed the hope that this plan be continued to reach all members. Concern was expressed that all librarians are not released to attend professional meetings.

SPECIAL: No report.

TRUSTEE: Dr. Schneider reported on a letter which he had received from ALA which will be distributed at the annual meeting.

The president gave each member a list of committee appointments. The question was asked if the president had the authority to appoint the committee. Mrs. Scott advised that this information is provided in the handbook. Col. Hillard recommended that more members serve on committees. Mrs. Scott moved that the list of appointments to the committee be accepted. Col. Hillard seconded and the vote carried.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

Mr. Nolen distributed an outline of the program for the fall convention and noted some changes from the programs of previous years. (The Program Committee will meet after the Executive Committee meeting today.)

President Reames did not recommend further negotiation with Dr. Daniel Fader concerning his $500 fee.

A number of suggestions were made to the Program Committee by the Executive Committee.

NEW BUSINESS:

1. President Reames noted the need for a literary map of South Carolina, and asked if this project should be referred to the JMRT. Mrs. Thompson moved that this project would be referred to the JMRT. Miss Williams seconded and the vote carried.

2. Mrs. Scott mentioned the bill which had been introduced into the legislature by Representative Sam Mendenhall of York County. The Executive Committee considered this and agreed that no action was indicated beyond the president's keeping alert to any new developments.

3. Mr. Reames asked about the arrangements for the meeting room and refreshments at the Richland County Library. (See Minutes April 11, 1970, Unfinished Business, #6.) Mr. Reames suggested that the treasurer be asked to take $5.00 from the expenses of the president and pay Mrs. Anna King, Librarian. Mrs. Thompson moved that $5.00 be taken from the contingency fund for the current year. Mrs. Foran seconded and the vote carried.

The meeting adjourned at 12:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Margaret W. Ehrhardt
SCLA Secretary

FALL 1971

SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
Executive Committee Meeting
April 17, 1971

The Executive Committee of the South Carolina Library Association met on April 17, 1971 at 10:30 a.m. in the Meeting Room of the Richland County Public Library. Members present included Mr. J. Mitchell Reames; Mr. J. Frank Nolen; Miss Elizabeth Champion; Mrs. Betty Ragsdale; Col. James M. Hillard; Mrs. Marguerite Thompson; Mrs. Carol S. Scott; Miss Barbara Williams; Mr. Lester E. Duncan, Jr., Editor of The South Carolina Librarian; Mrs. Paul J. Jones; and Mrs. Margaret W. Ehrhardt. Mr. Barrett Wilkins, incoming Chairman of the Junior Members' Round Table, was also present. Absent were Dr. L. A. Schneider, Mrs. Elizabeth Foran, and Mrs. Ruth Gregg.

The meeting was called to order by the President, J. Mitchell Reames. Mr. J. Frank Nolen moved that the minutes of the previous meeting, which had been mailed to the members, be accepted. Mrs. Ragsdale seconded and the vote carried. Miss Champion, who arrived later, requested that the name of the Project Chairman of the JMRT be changed from Gail Perry to Gail Curry. This was authorized.

Col. Hillard distributed a copy of the treasurer's report to the committee. He also reported a total of 690 personal members and 43 institutional members.

ALA COUNCILOR'S REPORT: Mrs. Thompson reported that she planned to attend the Annual Convention of ALA, which will be held June 20-26 at Dallas, Texas. Since no agenda of the meeting has been made available, Mrs. Thompson asked that she be allowed to confer with President Reames when this information is made available. If a vote of the EC is required to instruct the council, this will be done at the June 12 meeting or by mail. The Committee agreed on this.

Mrs. Thompson also reported that she had received a questionnaire from the Committee on Chapter Relationships, which was especially concerned with intellectual freedom.

She has also received a letter inviting her to attend a meeting concerned with the establishment of a caucus of ALA Councilors. Col. Hillard recommended that she attend as an individual rather than as a representative of SCLA. President Reames advised her to do this. Mr. J. Frank Nolen moved that the names of Dr. Joanne Harrar, Mrs. Carol S. Scott, and Mr. Kenneth E. Toombs be recommended for councilors-at-large. Mrs. Ragsdale seconded and the vote carried.

SELA REPRESENTATIVE: No report.

SECTION CHAIRMEN REPORTS:

JMRT: Miss Champion reported that she has resigned her position at the University of South Carolina to accept a new position in her home town of Albany, Georgia. Mr. Barrett Wilkins will be the new Chairman of the JMRT.

Miss Champion reported that the JMRT is now officially an affiliate of ALA JMRT. The State JMRT now includes all types of librarians.

PUBLIC: On March 24 the Public Library Section and the Trustee Section held a joint workshop at the Sheraton Inn in Columbia. The meeting was well attended by about 130 members. Mrs. Ragsdale reported that a slight profit had been made from registrations.

SCHOOL: No report.

SPECIAL: Mrs. Jones reported on the meeting of the Special Librarians' Section held in Columbia on March 7.

TRUSTEE: No report.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIAN, EDITOR: Mr. Duncan reported that due to the illness of Mrs. Merle Bachtell, Business Manager of Joseph Ruzicka, Inc., the mailing of the spring issue would be later than anticipated. Some members have already received their copies and others will soon receive theirs.

Mr. Duncan reported that he had attended the meeting of the Southeastern Editors held in Atlanta on March 7. He read from Dr. Jerrold Ornes' report on the status of the professional publications of the associations in nine Southeastern states. A copy of the entire report was filed with the secretary.

Mr. Duncan also reported on the meeting of the Editorial Board of The South Carolina Librarian held on April 16. Mr. Reames advised that Mrs. Phyllis Perdue, Librarian at Spring Valley High School, Columbia, S. C., had been appointed to replace Mrs. Doyle W. Boggs, who had recently resigned.

Mr. Duncan reported on two items on the agenda of this meeting—the formulation of an editorial policy and methods of financing The South Carolina Librarian. He read from the minutes of the meeting concerning this last item, "The Board voted to recommend to the Executive Board of SCLA an increase of membership dues that would allow the Association to meet 50% of the publishing costs of the journal. (The annual cost of the publication is estimated at $2,700.) It is also recommended that the remaining 50% be provided by the Joseph Ruzicka Company, if such an agreement can be reached with Mr. Ruzicka. In the event of not being able to secure the additional funds from Ruzicka, the remaining costs should be secured through the selling of advertisements in our journal. These proposals are in line with the majority of other Southeastern library publications."

Mr. Nolen recommended that Mr. Ruzicka be contacted before further action is taken on dues. President Reames recommended that the Editorial Board work further on this. Miss Champion moved that the Editorial Board be instructed to explore this question further and report to the EC at the June meeting. Col. Hillard seconded and the vote carried. Col. Hillard also stated that he would be out of the country at the time of the June meeting and wanted it known that he favored a dues increase to $6.00.

Mrs. Thompson moved the acceptance of the editorial policy. Mrs. Scott seconded and the vote carried. (A copy of this policy statement is attached.)

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:
1. 1971 Convention. Mr. Nolen advised that his committee would meet following the EC meeting to work further on plans for the program of the convention.
2. Handbook Revision. President Reames advised that Aesop Printing Company is now in the process of reprinting the handbook.
3. Executive Secretary. Mrs. Thompson again raised the question of the need for a part-time executive secretary for SCLA.
4. Honorary memberships. The question of honorary memberships will be taken up at the June meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:
1. Legislative Committee. President Reames reported that the Legislative Committee had met on April 14. The ALA coordinator had also met with the group. This committee will review existing library legislation in the South Carolina Code, and contact section chairmen for their views on new legislation or revisions. Current emphasis will be placed on the Interstate Library Compact making possible library service across state lines.
2. Constitution and By-Laws Committee. President Reames reported that this committee is functioning and will be ready with the constitutional changes by the convention date.
3. Planning. Committee functioning but no report.

5. S. C. Interagency Council on Aging. President Reames advised that Mrs. Sarah S. Harris, Chairman, has attended three meetings of this group. She will be suggested by Mr. Reames to represent SCLA at the Governor's Conference on Aging.

6. JMRT. The names of Doug Ernest, Mary Bostick, and Shirley Broom have been added to the Recruiting Committee. President Reames suggested that the JMRT consider a literary map of S. C. as a possible project.

7. Intellectual Freedom Committee. The secretary made a motion approving the guidelines for the development of a materials selection policy as stated and suggested that the committee consider adding procedures for the handling of complaints, then resubmit them to the EC. Mrs. Nolen seconded and the vote carried. Mrs. Ragsdale moved that the ALA Bill of Rights and School Library Bill of Rights for School Media Programs be endorsed. Mrs. Thompson seconded and the vote carried. (See attachments.)

The committee asked for the recommendation of the EC concerning the enacting of censure against persons for violation of intellectual freedom. The committee felt the need to know what form of censure is being considered. Col. Hillard recommended that each case be acted on as a separate item. There was general agreement.

Concerning the subscription to the ALA Intellectual Freedom Newsletter and the information packets, the committee would need to know the cost involved before approving.

Miss Williams moved that the EC endorse the Resolution on the Report of the President's Commission on Obscenity and Pornography. (See attached copy.) Mr. Nolen seconded and the vote carried.

The question of the Intellectual Freedom exhibit from ALA for the fall convention will be turned over to the exhibit's chairman for consideration.

Col. Hillard made a motion asking that the Intellectual Freedom Committee investigate the firing of a public librarian at Moncks Corner. Mrs. Jones seconded and the motion carried.

8. Reprint Project. The President informed the EC that Mr. Tom Smith of the Reprint Company in Spartanburg is considering the reprinting of a number of titles on South Carolina. He has asked for a committee from SCLA to assist him with the selection of titles and the dissemination of information concerning the availability of these titles. Col. Hillard moved that the president appoint such a committee. Miss Williams seconded and the motion carried.

9. The committee was informed that Miss Helen Jordan was representing the SCLA at the meeting today of the S. C. Council for the Common Good.

10. Miss Champion suggested that JMRT members might act as pages for the EC meetings and thereby learn the workings of the association. No action was taken on this suggestion.

11. According to the handbook, the president will act as the chairman of the Nominating Committee. Each section will be represented on the committee.

12. Miss Barbara Williams is to create a sub-committee for membership related to the ALA membership committee.

13. Mrs. Thompson again raised the question of a need for a part-time executive secretary for SCLA.

The president reminded the EC that there will be a called meeting of the committee on June 12.

The meeting adjourned at 1:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
Executive Committee Meeting
June 12, 1971

The Executive Committee of the South Carolina Library Association met on June 12, 1971, at 10:30 a.m. in the Meeting Room of the Richland County Public Library. Members present included Mrs. J. Mitchell Reame; Mr. J. Frank Nolen; Mrs. Betty Ragsdale; Mrs. Elizabeth Foran; Mrs. Paul J. Jones; Mrs. Marguerite G. Thompson; Mr. Lester E. Duncan, Editor of the South Carolina Librarian; and Mr. Barratt Wilkins. Absent were Col. James M. Hillard, Mrs. Carol S. Scott, Miss Barbara Williams, Mrs. Margaret W. Ehrhardt, Mrs. Ruth Gregg, and Dr. L. A. Schneider.

The meeting was called to order by the president, J. Mitchell Reames. President Reames read a letter from Col. Hillard requesting that two corrections be made in the minutes of the previous meeting on April 17. The last sentence of paragraph 4, page 2, should read: "Col. Hillard also stated that he would be out of the country at the time of the June meeting and wanted it known that he favored a dues increase of $6.00, if the Association underwrites the publishing cost of the South Carolina Librarian." Also, on page 3, item 11, the first sentence should read: "According to the handbook, the immediate past president will act as chairman of the Nominating Committee, with appointments to this committee made by the president." Mr. Nolen moved that the minutes of the previous meeting, as corrected, be accepted. Mrs. Ragsdale seconded and the vote carried.

As Col. Hillard was out of the country, he mailed the treasurer's report to Executive Committee members. Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Duncan, and Mr. Wilkins stated that they had not received a copy of the treasurer's report. Mrs. Jones had also not received a copy of the minutes of the April 17th meeting. President Reames received the treasurer's report as information and noted that as of June 1, the Association had 715 personal members and 49 institutional members.

ALA COUNCILOR'S REPORT: Mrs. Thompson reported on her plans to attend the Annual Convention of ALA to be held June 20-26, at Dallas, Texas. She noted that Col. Hillard had already sent her a check for expenses.

Mrs. Thompson stated that she had received a letter from the Chairman of the ALA Nominating Committee thanking the Association for nominations of Dr. Joanne Harrar, Mrs. Carol S. Scott, and Mrs. Kenneth E. Toombs as councilors-at-large.

SELA REPRESENTATIVE: No report.

SECTION CHAIRMAN REPORTS: President Reames suggested that if there was nothing pressing, section reports be dispensed with as there were many important items requiring Executive Committee consideration.

Special: Mrs. Jones reported that the South Atlantic Chapter, Georgia Section, of the Special Libraries Association, is beginning a survey of the needs of special libraries and special librarians in Georgia and South Carolina. She noted there were 180 members in Georgia and 6 members in South Carolina.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIAN, EDITOR: Mr. Duncan reported he had received a letter from Mr. Joseph Ruicka of the Joseph Ruicka Company stating the Company was delighted that the Executive Committee was considering partial support for the publishing of the South Carolina Librarian. According to the plan presented to Ruicka, the Association would meet 50% of the publishing cost of the journal—about $1,350.

President Reames noted that as the Ruicka Company was amenable to our suggestion, the dues structure would have to be changed. Mrs. Thompson suggested that the membership be given an itemization of what their dues go for, in justification of a dues increase. Mrs. Ragsdale asked the Executive Committee to consider with any dues change the possibility of the Association meeting every year and the hiring of a part-time Executive Secretary. Mr. Nolen and President Reames suggested that the personal membership dues be raised to $5.00. Mrs. Foran felt the sum of $5.00 would be more palpable than a raise in dues to $6.00.

Mrs. Foran moved that the Constitution Committee be instructed to change Section 1, Article 6, of the By-Laws, so that personal membership dues would be $5.00, effective January 1, 1972. Mrs. Ragsdale seconded and the vote carried.

Mr. Duncan proposed raising the subscription price of the South Carolina Librarian from $1.00 to $2.00. Mr. Duncan noted that Ruzicka estimated the cost of a single copy at 50c. Mrs. Jones moved that the subscription price be increased to $2.00. Mrs. Thompson seconded and the vote carried.

Mr. Duncan noted that the new deadline for the South Carolina Librarian is August 15.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. Intellectual Freedom Committee. President Reames reported that the cost of a subscription to the "ALA Intellectual Freedom Newsletter" was $5.00 a year. Mrs. Foran moved that a subscription be entered for the chairman of the Association's I. F. Committee.

2. Honorary memberships. A proposed listing of retired members who were eligible for honorary membership was made. Included on this list were: Alfred H. Rawlinson, Nancy Jane Day, Elizabeth Porcher, Patsy Scott, Elizabeth Dixon, Mrs. Vernon Brunson, Nan Carson, Laura Smith Ebaugh, Margaret Givens, and Manie D. Smith. Mrs. Foran moved that President Reames be allowed to place other members on the list who qualified for honorary membership and that the list be checked with the Treasurer to insure accuracy. Mrs. Jones seconded and the vote carried.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Library History Bibliography. President Reames advised the Executive Committee that Mr. Wilkins had completed the manuscript for publication in the Journal of Library History. Mr. Wilkins was duly thanked.

2. Reprint Project. President Reames reported that the Reprint Selection Committee had sent a list of 35 titles to Mr. Tom Smith of the Reprint Company, Spartanburg, South Carolina, for possible reprinting.

3. Nominating Committee. President Reames advised the Executive Committee of the appointment of Mrs. Carol Scott, Chairman, representing school librarians, Mrs. Harold Rice, representing trustees, Miss Betty Ann Chapman, representing public librarians and Junior Members, Miss Mary Beth Quick, representing college librarians, and Mrs. Mildred K. Hulme, representing special librarians.

4. Planning Committee. No report was received from the committee, but Mrs. Ragsdale gave a brief summary of items discussed at the committee's last meeting. Action was deferred until the report is submitted to the Executive Committee. Mrs. Foran moved that Miss Jane Wright, chairman of the Planning Committee, be invited to the August meeting of the Executive Committee. Mrs. Thompson seconded and the motion was carried.

5. The Executive Committee was informed by President Reames that he had written a letter in behalf of the Association thanking Senator Harris of Pickens County for his support of State Aid to South Carolina's public libraries.
6. JMRT. President Reames displayed a literary map of the State bought by Mr. John Landrum and Mr. Barratt Wilkins. The Executive Committee considered the map rather “blah” and felt that it could be greatly improved upon. President Reames noted that if JMRT consented to do a literary map, the group should emphasize beauty and accuracy.

7. Convention Plans. The Executive Committee is greatly distressed over the arrangement for the convention at the Sheraton Inn. This distress is due to a disappointment in Sheraton Inn facilities and the seeming disinterest of late shown by the Sheraton’s management. President Reames asked Mr. Wilkins to contact Mr. Landrum, Local Arrangements Chairman, and instruct him to investigate the facilities of the Town House Motel and the Wade Hampton Hotel for a possible move of convention sites. If there is a possibility of moving, Mr. Landrum should contact President Reames by Wednesday, June 16.

Mr. Nolen reported that the other arrangements for the convention were progressing smoothly. He itemized the proposed program (see enclosed sheet). Mr. Duncan and President Reames proposed making tape recordings of the speeches of the four main speakers. The Local Arrangements Chairman should look into this possibility.

The President reminded the Executive Committee that there will be a called meeting on August 28.

Mrs. Foran moved for adjournment and the meeting was adjourned at 12:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Barratt Wilkins
Secretary pro tem

REVIEWS

Two stories which appeared in past numbers of The South Carolina Review have been honored by the editors of The Best American Short Stories 1970. "Burning the Bed" by Doris Betts of Chapel Hill and "The Wishing Bone" by Elizabeth Boatwright Coker of Hartsville were selected as "Distinctive Short Stories, 1969."

In the June number of The Review, published this week by Furman University, emphasis is placed more on evaluation and appreciation than short fiction. In the lead articles Elizabeth Boatwright Coker offers a warm personal appreciation of Julia Peterkin and The Collected Short Stories of Julia Peterkin edited by Frank Durham of the University of South Carolina. Professor Richard J. Calhoun of Clemson penetrates to the heart of the short stories that form James Dickey’s Self-Interviews and The Eye-Beaters.

Fiction and poetry are not neglected, however. In this issue there are stories by Irene Brown Stapleton of Taylors and John F. Zeugner of Tallahassee; several poems; an essay on William Gilmore Simms; and "The End of ‘Old-Time Grace and Hospitality’- Richmond, 1864," a sketch of Richmond under siege, written by William J. Kimball of Converse College, a fine response to the editors’ earlier and continued appeal for more "essays on cultural topics relevant to the state and region."

The Review sells for $1.00 a copy, $2.00 per year, and $3.50 for a two year subscription.

SPECIAL LIBRARY SECTION

The third Spring workshop of the Special Library Section, South Carolina Library Association, was held Saturday, March 6, 1971, at the Crafts-Farrow State Hospital Library. Mrs. Bertha H. Flemming, librarian, and Mrs. Yvonne Wade, assistant librarian, were hostesses.

Registration and coffee hour began at 9:30 a.m., with Mrs. Dorothy K. Jones, Miss Mary Ulmer and Mrs. Marjorie P. Deabler assisting. Dr. Thomas G. Faison, superintendent, Crafts-Farrow Hospital, welcomed the special librarians.

Mrs. Meta B. Jones, chairman, opened the business session with a timely message concerning the special librarian in the modern world.

The subject for the workshop discussion was: "Resource material in neighboring states available to special libraries." The guest speakers were Miss C. Desmond Koster from the South Carolina Medical University Library, Charleston, and Mrs. Jean Steele, at present working on the union catalog at Emory University, Atlanta.

Short reports were made by Mrs. Sarah S. Harris on a two day workshop she attended in North Carolina, and by Mrs. Neeta N. Shah and Mrs. Myrna N. Strangeland on the bibliography groups they conduct at the South Carolina State Hospital.

Mrs. Mildred Hulme reported that the 47th convention of the South Carolina Library Association will be held at the Wade Hampton Hotel, Columbia, October 7-9. Mrs. Meta Jones announced that the speaker for the Special Library Section will be the Honorable Hannah D. Atkins, member of the Oklahoma State legislature and past president of the Oklahoma chapter of the Special Libraries Association.

After luncheon, Mrs. Flemming described the various library services offered the Crafts-Farrow residents. Devert Moore, supervisor of Activity Therapy Service, showed colored slides of activities conducted at the hospital. Mrs. Mabel Hicks, Volunteer Services coordinator, and Robert Snowden, activity therapist, conducted a tour of the grounds and representative wards.

Recent South Caroliniana
A Partial List

Compiled by LYNN S. BARRON
McKissick Memorial Library, University of South Carolina

This is the twelfth list of this kind to appear in The South Carolina Librarian. The titles have been gathered from various bibliographies and from items received at the South Caroliniana Library. No claim is made to a complete listing of all recently published Caroliniana, although that has been my aim. Included are works by native South Carolinians, works on South Carolina subjects, and also works by persons who have lived in the state long enough to be considered adopted sons. Works by authors who are Carolinians by birth, education, and tradition, but who no longer live in the state, are also included.

This is not a bibliography in the strict sense of the word. I have tried, within limits, to establish the main entry from the National Union Catalog but bibliographical refinements beyond that have not been attempted.

The list has grown to 211 entries, 50 more than last year, due, in part, to the number of publications occasioned by the Centennial and to the proliferation of reprints.

For a more complete statement of the scope and purpose of this list see Mitchell Reames' introduction to the fourth of these lists in the October, 1967 issue of this journal.

I wish to thank Mr. Reames for sending to me through the year suggestions for inclusion in the list; Mr. E. L. Inabinet, Librarian of the South Carolina Library, and his staff for their cooperation and help; and Mr. Kenneth Toomb, Director of the University of South Carolina Libraries for allowing me the time and staff assistance to compile this list.

Jodocus Badius Ascensius was born Josse Bade in the year 1462, in the Flemish town of Asche near Brussels. Badius was a thorough scholar and had studied Latin and Greek in Italy. Johann Trechsel, printer of Lyon, employed Badius as a scholarly corrector in his printing office. It was here that Badius became interested in the art of printing which Trechsel taught him. Badius married Trechsel’s daughter Thalia. In addition to editing and printing in Trechsel’s printing office, Badius served for some time as Professor of Greek and Latin at the University of Lyon.

Settling in Paris some time between 1495 and 1599, this scholar-printer established his press there about 1500 and began his independent printing and publishing career which was to last approximately twenty-five years.

The earliest known representation of a printing press is that which was printed in 1499 at Lyon by Matthias Huss in an edition of the Dance of Death. However, this woodcut was used as textual illustration and not as a title page device. Badius executed an interesting “first” in printing history by using a woodcut representation of a printing press as a title page device.

Badius’ design shows a printer, pulling on the bar of the press, taking an impression. Standing behind him, to the left, the assistant pressman is shown working a pair of ink balls together. On the right side of the press a compositor is sitting in front of a type case setting type in a composing stick.

There are at least three variants of the device with first use dated 1507, next variant 1520, and the third variant dated 1529. A motto “Praehum Ascensianum” (spelling varies) is inscribed on the press itself, and the 1507 version includes a monogram JVAB at the bottom of the device. The monogram, standing for Jodocus Badius Van Asche, indicated a certain pride in his birthplace.

The first appearance of the device occurred in the Secunda Pars Operum Bap­tistarum Manuscienti, which Badius printed at his office on the Rue Saint-Jacques in Paris, and is dated July 1, 1507. The device also appears on the Prima Pars of the work which is dated September 2, 1507. The press shown in the 1520 version is an improved and strengthened machine over the one shown first in 1507. The typesetter in the 1507 version holds the composing stick in his right hand, while in the 1520 and 1529 versions the typesetters hold the sticks in their left hand. In the 1520 depiction the typesetter is apparently a woman, while in the 1529 woodcut there are two men in the background setting type.

Badius used this device throughout his long career as a printer. The 1520 variant first appeared in July of that year on an edition of Henri Gothaus’ Summum Quaestionum Ordinarium. The 1529 variant first appeared on the title page of Guillaume Bude’s Commentarius Linguae Graecae issued in September.

Badius’ use of this device started a fad and many printers in France and other parts of Europe adopted a press as their own device. These printers used Badius’ design as a model and modified it to suit themselves.

Badius published the early works of Erasmus including editions of the Adagia and the Praise of Folly. He was the first publisher of the works of Guillaume Bude, one of the greatest Greek scholars of all time.

During his lifetime Badius printed between 400 and 700 books, and was noted for the accuracy of his Latin texts. Badius edited, with commentary, many editions of Latin and Greek classics he printed in folio or quarto volumes. He wrote a life of Thomas a Kempis, and a famous satire on the follies of women titled Navicula Stultiarum Muliebrum. The edition of Richard de Bury’s Philibiblon which Badius produced is noteworthy. He published the first Latin edition of the Brandt’s Navis Stultiara (The Ship of Fools) which he also issued in a French translation under the title La Nef Des Folz Du Monde, which he edited, adding some variation of his own.

Two of the daughters of Jodocus and Thalia Badius married noted Parisian printers. One married Michael Vascozan, and Robert Estienne married another daughter, Perrette. Robert Estienne, the second son of Henry Estienne and stepson of Simon de Colines, was twenty-one years old in 1524 when he took over the pat­ternal printing office. He married Perrette Badius shortly thereafter. Perrette was a thorough scholar and assisted her husband in editing the many Greek and Latin classics which Robert printed. In the Estienne home Latin was the language, and was spoken even by the servants and the children.

McMurtrie says that Badius “... typog­raphy, though excellent, does not compare with that of his sons-in-law, and his reputation rests chiefly upon his scholarship.”

Jodocus Badius died in 1535 and his printing firm was merged with the Esti­enne Press. A most fitting epitaph was inscribed on the stone marking his grave. The original is in Latin which translates into English as:

“HERE LIES
JODOCUS BADIUS ASCENSIIUS
AUTHOR OF MANY BOOKS
HIS BOOKS WERE MORE NUMEROUS
THAN HIS CHILDREN
BECAUSE HE BEGAN AS AUTHOR
VERY EARLY* AND FATHER

York County Library
Gets H.E.W. Grant

A Federal grant of $50,000 for the construction of the Fort Mill Branch of the York County Library has been approved by the Health, Education and Welfare Department, according to Miss Estellene P. Walker, South Carolina State Library, librarian. The funds will be disbursed through the State Library.

Construction is to start in August with completion scheduled for early spring. It will be located on Confederate Street and will have two levels each containing 4,000 sq. ft. The main floor is designed to accommodate 15,000 volumes. The architect is Paula Tredder of Rock Hill.

Total cost of the building is $103,000. The Springs Foundation has pledged $50,000 and Libraries, Inc., a local group created to raise funds, and other local sources have combined to raise, last count, $31,950 in pledges.

Mrs. J. Max Hinson is the branch librarian.

Editors Meeting
Held In Atlanta

On March 7, 1971, at the initiative of the Southeastern Library Association, a full-day meeting was held on the problems of professional library publications in our region. The editors of such publications from each of the member states were invited; the discussion was led by the undersigned reporter, the editor of The Southeastern Librarian. Those present were:

For Missippi: Mrs. C. C. Clark, Editor, Mississippi Library News
For North Carolina: Mell Bushin, Editor, North Carolina Libraries
For South Carolina: Lester E. Duncan, Editor, South Carolina Librarian
For Tennessee: Paul Murphy, Editor, Tennessee Librarian
For Virginia: Dean Burgess, Editor, Virginia Librarian
And Jerrold Orne, Editor, The Southeastern Librarian

Added impetus for the meeting came from the unmistakable evidence of ever-increasing costs of publication, rising criticism of content and duplication of content in numerous small publications, limited available publication-worthy writing, steady decrease in advertising income, and the general public demand for responsible management of limited resources. These and other relevant factors can no longer be treated lightly by responsible professional organizations.

The discussion was initiated with a report for each State of the publication or publications produced by the State Library Association and by the State Library Agency. The wide divergence of type of publication, content, editorial policy, and financing was abundantly evident. Two journals are joint publications of the State Library Association and the State Library Agency (Miss., Fla.) Three State Library Association journals are funded by a private business enterprise, and constitute no burden on the Association (N. C., S. C., Va.). One is exclusively a State Library Agency publication; the State Library Association having no periodical (Ga.). One State Library Association pays its editor; he believes this should be a universal practice (No other editor present supported his view). One journal is edited at home by a retired State Library employee (Miss.) and another is done at home by a librarian housebound by a growing family (Fla.). Written editorial policy for these journals, as well as for The Southeastern is virtually non-existent. Fiscal management is generally either casual or apparently of no great concern. Most of the editors appeared eager to achieve better policy determination, to establish a rational coordination of resources, and to share common experiences. The volatile discussion which accompanied the State by State review and revolved about certain key issues and proposals resulted in consensus on the following objectives:

1. Management: The pattern of State Library Agency and State Library Association joint publication deserves the attention of each State not now following such a plan.

2. Funding: State Library Associations, particularly those now planning for paid executive staff, will have increasing difficulty in funding their journal and may have to give up one or the other. The three States whose publication is subsidized should make reasonable plans for carrying out their professional responsibilities. This kind of outside support is unlikely to be continued on a permanent basis.

3. Editorial Policy: It was agreed that the reporter should draw up a draft editorial policy for a State publication along with its counterpart for the regional journal. These will be circulated to all editors and through them to their constituency for review and codification as an Association policy. It is hoped by this means to achieve some consistency in content. The editorial policy for The Southeastern Librarian will be submitted, after review, to the Southeastern Library Association Executive Board for approval.

4. A model Association policy may also be drafted for consideration by each State group setting forth proposals for editor appointment, term of office, remuneration (if any), fiscal matters, state-regional relationships, etc.

5. The Editor, The Southeastern Librarian will propose to the Executive Board, Southeastern Library Association, the phasing out of the State corps of Associate Editors, one for each State. The proposed Associate Editors would be the respective editors of their State publication, whatever form it might have. Together with the privilege of serving as an Associate Editor would go certain responsibilities for ensuring proper representation in the regional journal for their respective States. This would include editing and forwarding on a regular schedule those news and personal items established by written policy as suitable material for the regional journal. It would also include the selection and submission of at least one candidate article from each State each year. These and other details of content will be spelled out in the written editorial policy statements. The Associate Editors should serve as a corps of counsellors to the Editor to assure the best possible coordination of the various States and the regional journal.

S.C.L.A. Begins Reprint Program

For the past several months the South Carolina Library Association has had a Committee on South Carolina Books at work trying to determine which out-of-print books are most needed by the libraries of this state.

To culminate its effort, the Committee recently compiled a list of 17 books, out-of-print, which it feels should be reprinted and has made tentative arrangements with The Reprint Company of Spartanburg, S. C., to issue reprint editions of these titles.

Since a project of this scope requires an incurring of substantial pre-publication support by the libraries of the state and individuals interested in South Carolina before the publisher can proceed, a pre-publication subscription campaign will begin in October and run until December 31, 1971. The Publisher has agreed to reprint any or all of the titles if a minimum of 200 copies of each title is ordered prior to publication. The Reprint Company has reserved the right to remove from the project any title failing to receive the minimum indication of support. Members of the South Carolina Library Association will be eligible to order the entire set at $33.75% discount from retail price during the subscription period. Selected titles from among the list may also be ordered at the same 33/3% discount.

Following is a list of books chosen for the project. The first price shown is the retail price after publication: the second the pre-publication price until December 31, 1971.

1. Bernheim, Gotthardt D.: History of the German Settlements and of the Lutheran Church in North and South Carolina. (1872), 552 pp. $18.00/12.00.
2. Cheiritzel, Abel M.: Early Methodism in the Carolinas. (1897), 384 pp. $15.00/10.00.
3. Dayton, John: A View of South Carolina, As Respects Her Natural and Civil Concerns. (1802), 264 pp. $15.00/10.00.
5. Garden, Alexander: Anecdotes of the Revolutionary War in America. With Sketches of Persons the Most Distinguished in the Southern States for Civil and Military Services. (1822), 472 pp. $15.00/10.00.
14. Smith, Reed: South Carolina Ballads, with a Study of the Tradition Ballad Today. (1928), 192 pp. $10.50/7.00.
15. S. C. Department of Agriculture: South Carolina: Resources and Population, Institutions and Industries. (1883), 768 pp. $27.00/18.00.
17. Cyclopedia of Eminent and Representative Men of The Carolinas of the Nineteenth Century with a Brief Historical Introduction on South Carolina by General Edward McGady, Jr. (1892), 744 pp. $24.00/16.00. (Vol. 1 only. South Carolina.)

*This book tentative pending copyright arrangements.

All of the books will be produced in a 5½” x 8¼” size, bound in cloth and printed on long-life paper. Color maps in three of the books will be reproduced in black and white. It is anticipated that the books will go into production in early 1972 and be delivered by April 1972.

Members of the Association will receive complete information on the project through a mail order campaign. Additional inquiries and orders may be sent direct to: The Reprint Company, P. O. Box 5401, Spartanburg, S. C. 29301.

Library Association President J. Mitchell Reames has expressed the hope that this valuable project will receive the support needed to make it a reality.

USC Celebrates Getting 1 Million Book

A copy of the first edition of Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" was presented to Dr. Thomas F. Jones, president of the University of South Carolina, in ceremonies Tuesday marking the acquisition of one million volumes by the USC libraries.

University officials cited the reaching of one million volumes in the libraries as "a major academic milestone."

The presentation of the Whitman book was made by James W. Haltiwanger of Columbia. The book was given to the University by Mr. and Mrs. James W. Haltiwanger and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Haltiwanger in memory of James William Haltiwanger, a member of USC Class of 1901.

The book originally belonged to Tom Rome, one of the brother operators of the Rome Printing Shop in Brooklyn that published "Leaves of Grass" July 4, 1855. The highly valued collector's item was passed down through the Rome family and, with a New York book shop acting as an intermediary, was purchased by the University of South Carolina.

Another historical literary item, a rare 16th century copy of Eusebius "The Chronicle," royally bound with the coat of arms of King Henry VIII, was presented during the ceremonies as the first volume of the second million books. Eusebius, a religious chronicler, wrote some of the few accounts of early Christianity compiled during Roman times.

Andrew Langfelder, president of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity, which has aided the library with fund-raising projects, presented the copy of "The Chronicle" to the libraries.

Becoming a million-volume library is, according to USC Director of Libraries Kenneth G. Toombs, a "significant achievement for any university."

Toombs said USC now has joined a select group of institutions in the Southeast who have one million volumes. He said, "It puts us in the big time."

-The State, 5-12-71
After other matters were treated the group adjourned to the college cafeteria for lunch and an informal discussion was held.

Rabbi Gruber's Books Given By Sons To USC Libraries

The major part of the extensive book collection of the late Rabbi David S. Gruber, who died a year ago Tuesday, has been donated to the University of South Carolina libraries by his two sons.

Dr. Louis N. Gruber of New Orleans and Rabbi Mayer I. Gruber of Orange, N. J., have given some 7,200 volumes of the late Rabbi's books to USC.

The University's director of libraries, Kenneth E. Toombs, said the collection is one of the largest ever received by USC's libraries and that a special bookplate will go in each volume.

Dr. Gruber and Rabbi Gruber said, "Next to his children, Rabbi Gruber's greatest pride was in his library, which was strong in Judaica and comparative religion, but which encompassed the full scope of human civilization. It is the fortune of his children and the University that they share both his inspiration and this spiritual legacy."

Rabbi Gruber began his library collection upon graduating from high school and the collection numbered about 10,000 volumes when he died. The University has designated the donation to its libraries as the Rabbi David Gruber Collection.

David Samuel Gruber was born in Russia in 1907, and his family came to the United States just before World War I. Educated in the public schools of Boston, he was graduated from Boston English High School in 1925 and that year ranked among the eight highest students in the nation on College Board Entrance Examination scores.

He was graduated cum laude from Harvard University in 1929, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Rabbi Gruber then graduated with honors from New York's Jewish Institute of Religion in 1933.

From 1933 to 1948 he served as spiritual leader of the Congregation Gates of Heaven in Schenectady, N. Y., and ministered to the Beth Sholom Congregation of Danville, Va., from 1948 until coming to Columbia's Tree of Life Synagogue in 1950.

From 1950 to 1967, Rabbi Gruber also served as auxiliary chaplain at Ft. Jackson and from 1953 to 1968 as counselor to Jewish students at the University of South Carolina under the auspices of the Hillel Foundation.

In 1936 Rabbi Gruber married the former Mathilde Nover of New York, who died in 1968. Their two sons, Louis and Mayer, donors of the books to USC, are graduates of Drexel High School in Columbia.

Mayer was graduated from Harvard and also received an M.A. degree from Columbia University and a Master of Hebrew Literature degree from the Jewish Theological Seminary. He now is assistant rabbi of Congregation Oheb Shalom in South Orange, N. J.

Louis is a graduate of the Medical University of South Carolina and completed his residency in psychiatry at Tulane University where he is now a clinical instructor. Dr. Gruber is married to the former Judith Ann Friedman. Ceremonies were performed Aug. 16, 1970, by his father, the day before Rabbi Gruber died.

Library Named For Teszler

SPARTANBURG—The new $1.5 million Wofford College Library has been named the Sandor Teszler Library in honor of Sandor Teszler, father of Andrew Teszler, member of the Wofford Board of Trustees. A dedication ceremony honoring Teszler was conducted in the library Saturday afternoon.

John L. Stickley, chairman of Stickley Textiles, Inc., of Charlotte, N. C., was guest speaker for the dedication ceremonies. Stickley praised Teszler for his outstanding contributions to society and his devotion to higher education.

Teszler, a native of Hungary, studied textile engineering at the University of Chemnitz in Germany. He and his brother transformed their mercantile firm into a highly successful textile industry.

In 1948 Teszler emigrated to the United States where he has since become one of this country's outstanding industrialists. He has always found time to pursue his love for literature and music.

Wofford College President Paul Hardin III stated, "It is a privilege for us to identify permanently the Teszler name with Wofford College. Sandor Teszler has a long-standing interest in higher education and a great philanthropic spirit. Andrew Teszler has given fine leadership to our college, and his substantial financial support and unyielding devotion to the improvement of Wofford are a source of encouragement and pride to all of us."

The three-level library was opened in September, 1969, and has a capacity of 150,000 volumes. In 1970 the library received the Merit Award for excellence from the South Carolina chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Public Library Service In South Carolina Shows Continued Improvement

Highlighted by the dedication of its new multi-storied building, the South Carolina State Library's recently published first annual report reflects continuing improvement in the quality and quantity of library service for the state's residents.

"In 1969, the General Assembly designated the former S. C. State Library Board as the State Library and expanded its responsibilities to include all the functions of a general state library," commented Miss Etellene P. Walker, State Library librarian.

"The State Library's new seven-level building on Senate Street in Columbia made it possible to consolidate under one roof the state's research and reference materials, and to make them readily available to all state government and state agency personnel," she stated.

In addition to administering State Aid to public libraries and disbursing federal funds under the Library Services and Construction Act, the State Library is also responsible for improving the state's public and institutional library service; for library service to the visually and physically handicapped; for the supervision of public library building construction; and for reference, interlibrary loan and consultant service to public libraries and state institutions.

"Statistically, the reporting year was very good," according to Miss Walker. "Public library income reached an all-time high of nearly $4 million and all of the state's 46 counties are now qualified to receive state aid. We have approximately 75 professional librarians working in South Carolina, nearly double the figure of 13 years ago. Our present supply of public library books now exceeds a record 2,600,000 volumes, all of which have been carefully selected and are in reasonably good condition. Circulation continues to be strong, and public library service has been made available to even the most remote areas of the state by nearly 45 bookmobiles," she added.

Book collections have been greatly expanded at various state institutions, and over 10,000 volumes of their present bookstock were added last year. Improved library service has been extended from an original six to eleven state institutions, and the State Library's reference and interlibrary loan service was extended to include state-operated institutions.

Library service for the visually and physically handicapped, which includes talking books, books in Braille, tapes and books in large print, has been extended to over 1400 registered readers. During the year the State Library established browsing collections of talking books at the Greenville, Spartanburg and Charleston county libraries. Now for the first time the handicapped patron who normally receives materials by mail, has direct access to reading material and has the guidance of a librarian in selecting books.

During the reporting period, five new public library buildings were completed. They are located in Abbeville, Bamberg, Greenwood, Pickens and Spartanburg counties.

Statistics on all libraries in South Carolina (except school libraries) are included in the report. It contains valuable information on bookstock, circulation, state and local per capita support, and other facts and figures reflecting the quality level of library service in South Carolina.

NEW LIBRARY BUILDING AT MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

The library of the Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston, recently moved into its new quarters and now occupies 33,000 square feet on two floors of the Library/Administration Building. The new facility will house 140,000 volumes and provide seating for 175 readers, 150 of these at individual study carrels.
