NEW HEADING—NEW EDITORS

The attractive new masthead, which appeared on the last issue of NEWS AND VIEWS and will be used in the future, was designed by Deborah Hotchkiss of the South Carolina State Library. We appreciate Deborah donating her talent to make NEWS AND VIEWS more attractive.

This is my last issue as editor. I have enjoyed working with the newsletter the past two years, but with an upcoming building project and other obligations locally, I feel I would not have the time to devote to the publication during the coming year. Starting with the next issue, NEWS AND VIEWS will have co-editors, Michael Freeman of Columbia and Michael McCulley of Duncan. Their addresses and telephone numbers appear in the list of new officers for 1986 which appears in this issue of the newsletter.

REORGANIZATION AT STATE LIBRARY

On November 1, the South Carolina State Library was divided into two divisions, each headed by a Deputy Director. The Division of Library Development includes three departments—Administration, Field Services, and the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. The Division of Library Services will be composed of the Reader Services and Technical Services Departments and the newly created South Carolina Library Network. The reorganization plan was authorized by the State Library Board to strengthen agency management and to handle continuing growth in library services. The change follows passage of new State Library legislation by the 1985 General Assembly.

Heading the two new Divisions are James B. Johnson, Jr., Deputy Director for Library Development and John H. Landrum, Deputy Director for Library Services.

Anne Middleton Schneider has been appointed Director of Reader Services for the South Carolina State Library. She is filling the position left vacant with John Landrum's promotion to Deputy Director for Library Services.

NEW EDITOR FOR NEWS FOR SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIES

Jo Ann Piotter, Cataloger, South Carolina State Library, has been appointed Editor of the State Library's newsletter NEWS FOR SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIES. All news items and inquiries concerning the newsletter should now be directed to: Jo Ann Piotter, South Carolina State Library, P. O. Box 11469, Columbia, S. C. 29211. Telephone: 803-758-3181 or 758-3163.
PLA JOBLINE AVAILABLE 24 HOURS A DAY

Need a job in a public library or state library agency? The Public Library Association offers JOBLINE, a telephone line open 24 hours a day to help members of the profession offer and find employment opportunities nationwide. Jobline's number is 312-664-JOBS (664-5627).

Jobline listings include position title, location, job description, requirements, salary, closing dates, and application data. The listings are updated late every Thursday afternoon to ensure currency and accuracy.

To list a job vacancy, employers should send essential information by letter on job listing form available from PIA. A listing is $30 for PIA members, $35 for nonmembers. Checks should be made payable to PIA Jobline and sent with listing. Each listing runs for two weeks and only equal opportunity employment listings will be accepted. Listings must pertain only to public library or state library agency vacancies.

For more information or listing forms, contact James Irwin, PLA Jobline, ALA, 50 E. Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611. Phone 312-944-6780.

FLY WITH T. V. TRAVEL TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND WIN A TRIP TO HAWAII

The first 500 ALA Conference attendees to book transportation to New York through T. V. Travel will automatically be entered into a drawing for two roundtrip tickets to Honolulu, Hawaii, including roundtrip coach airfare, six nights hotel accommodations, and airport transfers.

Second prize is two free airline tickets on American Airlines to any American city in the continental US from the American city closest to the winner's hometown. Third, fourth, and fifth prizes are certificates for a 10% discount off of the winner's next ticket purchased through T. V. Travel.

Winning names will be drawn by ALA representative at the Annual Conference in New York.

FEMINIST RESOURCE BOOK LISTS AVAILABLE FROM ALA

"Your Library: A Feminist Resource" is a new series of book lists recommending women's information sources in the following subject areas: Black Women, Chicanas/Hispanic-American Women, Job Hunting for Women, Images of Women in Literature, Lesbians, Pay Equity, Child Sexual Abuse, Rape and Domestic Violence Against Women, Women's History, Women in Management, and Women's Studies. An information brochure describing library resources and services for women and listing selected reference tools of special interest to women introduces the set.

The project is the result of a Carnegie Reading List Fund award and is sponsored by the American Library Association Committee on the Status of Women in Librarianship.

The brochure and 11 bibliographies are available for $2 prepaid. Quantity discounts are available. For further information and orders, contact Committee on the Status of Women in Librarianship Staff Liaison, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611, 312-944-6780.
USC PROJECT TO STUDY HISTORY OF SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARIES

A three-year project to study the neglected history of South Carolina's libraries began this fall at the University of South Carolina College of Library and Information Science.

"The full story of libraries in the state has never been told," said project Director Dr. Robert V. Williams, an associate professor of library and information science at USC.

The project includes five major goals: taking an inventory of records and artifacts relating to South Carolina's libraries, recording oral history interviews with twenty of the state's library leaders, expanding and revising Barrett Wilkins' "Bibliography of South Carolina Library History", setting up museum exhibits highlighting the history and architecture of libraries, and sponsoring an invitational conference on South Carolina library history.

The college received a $10,000 grant to fund the first year of the program from the South Carolina Committee for the Humanities, the South Carolina State Library, and the South Carolina Library Association.

SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
Minutes of Executive Board Meeting
22 August 1985

The Executive Board of the South Carolina Library Association met at the South Carolina State Library in Columbia on Saturday, August 22, 1985, at 10:30 a.m. Those present were: Joe Boykin, Helen L. Callison, David Cohen, Frankie H. Cubbedge, Charles Curran, Tammy C. Fisher, Penny Forrester, Charles W. Grubbs, Maureen Harris, Susan Roberts Hollifield, Rose Marie Huff, Jackie Kelley, Bill Langston, Michael Leonard, Faith Line, Tom Raines, Drucie Reeves, Joseph Rice, Michael Rouse, Florence H. Steele, Carl Stone, Lou Whitmore, and Bob Williams.

President Carl Stone called the meeting to order. The minutes from the meeting on May 11 were approved as recorded and mailed.

OLD BUSINESS

Ad Hoc Finance Committee Report: A number of recommendations were made and acted upon by the Executive Board. They are as follows:

Committee reported that they saw no reason to change the membership (fiscal) year, as had been suggested earlier. The Executive Committee was interested in changing only the membership year, and the matter was referred to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee.

The committee did not recommend instituting a discount for early membership renewal. After discussion, Joe Boykin moved that this matter be tabled; motion passed.

The committee recommended establishing a memorial and honoraria fund which would allow donations to the association, with the funds kept separate from other SCLA revenue accounts. This was seconded and passed; it will go to the appropriate committee so they can work out details involved.

Recommendation was made that an additional membership category be established. It would be called Sustaining Membership, would cost $35 per year, and it would provide three free memberships in SCLA sections or Round Tables. This was passed and has been given to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee for presentation to the membership at the fall convention.

Recommendation was made that SCLA maintain a reserve fund amounting to at least one half of the current year's annual budget. Seconded by Joe Boykin, who moved the following amendment: Expenditure of reserve funds would require a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board. The amended recommendation was accepted, and the Constitution and By-Laws Committee will present this for general membership action.

Recommendation by the Ad Hoc Finance Committee that the Treasurer continue to study the problem of transferring financial and membership data from the USC computer to a local database was passed after Joe Boykin suggested the deletion of a statement that the committee did not see the need for purchasing a microcomputer at this time and seconded the remaining recommendation.

The Committee recommended that people continue to apply to the board (for funds) on an "as need" basis and not adopt a special procedure for distributing monies for activities other than operational ones. Joe Boykin make a substitute motion: Individuals or ad hoc committees members may apply to the Executive Committee for funds on an "as need" basis. This was passed, and it will be added to suggested changes for the associational handbook.

Dr. Bob Williams, USC, reported on the History of South Carolina Libraries Project:

The South Carolina Committee for the Humanities has granted $5000 for support of the project entitled "South Carolina's Library Heritage, with the USC College of Library and Information Science matching this with the provision of $5000 in-kind funding. Miss Callaham, speaking for the State Library, has agreed to provide $2500 for the project for the coming year, September 1985 - August 1986. SCLA is requested to provide an additional $2500 for funding the first year of the project. SCCH had not promised future funding for the remaining two years of the project; the State Library expects to continue funding the project at the same level for the next two years, given the availability of LSCA funds; SCLA is not asked to make commitment concerning future years at this time.

The Executive Board accepted the report and approved provision of $2500 for the initial year with a vote of 8 in favor of the report and 4 opposed to it.

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee reported on proposed amendments to the bylaws of the South Carolina Library Association:

Amendment I
"To amend Article I, by adding
'f. Dues for Sustaining Members shall be $35.00.' (Executive Board added this: Sustaining memberships will entitle the members to join three sections or Round Tables with each Section or Round Table receiving $2.00 each, and sustaining members wishing to join more than two Sections or Round Tables shall pay an additional $2.00 for each additional membership.)

Amendment II
"To amend Article II, Section 2 by adding
'e. Serves ex officio on the planning Committee with voting privileges.'"

Amendment III
"To amend Article V, Section 2, b, by substituting
'b. The standing Committees shall include the following:
Constitution
Continuing Education
Editorial
Grievance
Intellectual Freedom
Legislative
Membership
Planning"
Publicity
Awards’ for ‘b. The Standing Committees shall include the following:
Constitution
Continuing Education
Editorial
Grievance
Intellectual Freedom
Legislative
Membership
Planning
Publicity and Awards.’

These proposed amendments were accepted by the Executive Board. It was also agreed that Michael Leonard would write up descriptions of the tasks assigned to the separate committees and run it by the Constitution and By-Laws Committee in time to present it to the convention’s business session. In addition, the changes presented by the Ad Hoc Finance Committee and approved by the Board will be incorporated in the information presented to the membership.

The Nominating Committee reported that the following persons have agreed to run for office for 1986:
First vice president/president elect: Dr. Barbara Jenkins,
South Carolina State College, Orangeburg
Second vice president: Cate Townsend, McCormick Middle School
Secretary: Michael Leonard, Charleston County Library, Charleston
Treasurer: David Cohen, College of Charleston, Charleston
Nominating Committee members: Deborah Hotchkiss,
Alleene Holland, Trish Ridgeway, and Druci
Reeves, Chair

Lou Whitmore, Executive Secretary, recommended the awarding of the following Honorary Memberships:
Frank Anderson, Wofford College
Desmond Koster, MUSC Library
Nancy Looney, Kershaw County Library

In addition, the Board discussed the retirement of Col.
Hilliard, for many years treasurer of SCLA but not an active member of the association for the past three years. In recognition of his years of service, Carl Stone asked that an exception to the rule concerning uninterrupted years of membership be made and that we present him with an honorary membership also.
The vote was in the affirmative.

Whitmore also reported that she had ordered 50 Honorary Life Member Certificates, which should meet our needs for several years, as well as SCLA letterhead stationery for use by the Executive Board. Whitmore willingly assisted the Archives/Special Collections Roundtable in printing and mailing the ASCR newsletter
In addition to issuing the call to the August Board Meeting, Lou was engaged in the bulk mailings of NEWS & VIEWS and the CALL TO CONVENTION. Her report was accepted and approved by the Board.

NEW BUSINESS

Proposed New Roundtables

Tammy Fisher proposed the formation of a Library Technical Assistants Roundtable, designed to help meet the needs of members of the association who are not professional librarians.

Charles Curran proposed the formation of a Library and Information Science Continuing Education Roundtable and suggested that those interested call him at (803) 777-2909 for additional information. Petitions signed by twenty-five members of the association are needed before any action can be taken concerning a new roundtable. Dr. Curran also announced that students in USC’s College of Library and Information Science will help with registration and other services at the fall convention.

Treasurer’s Report: David Cohen gave a full financial report, with the notation that $7,715.75 of the $29,672.43 shown as assets was committed to sections and roundtables. The question was raised concerning a possible error in GODORT’s figures. Cohen will check to see if their membership should not be higher and if the income from program and other sources should not be lower. (Full report can be found in Appendix 1.)

President’s Report: Stone reported that the Greenville hotel which we were considering for the 1987 convention lacked sufficient space for all of the meetings. Greenville Public Library has committed the use of space in their facility so that Greenville will be the site of the convention.

Susan Roberts Hollifield, V-P/Elect, reported final general plans for the convention. General Session speakers will be Dr. E. J. Josey, Dr. Janette Capato, and Dr. Lucille Ryan. The film of Alvin Tofler’s Third Wave will be shown as a cinema nightcap following the boat cruise on Thursday night. A one-page listing of the responsibilities of the Local Arrangements Committee has been prepared. Any questions about convention arrangements should be discussed with David Cohen, 792-5530.

Tom Raines, 2nd V-P reported that the current membership is 617, with the hopes of increasing that number as the convention is held. School librarians not presently members will receive a mailout encouraging attendance and participation in the association. Continued inability to access the membership lists by types and locations makes mailouts to precisely targeted groups very difficult. Raines feels that a first-time membership rate could have increased the membership.

SCLA National Library Week Sub-committee was announced, with Valeria Staley, South Carolina State College, chairing this year’s committee. (Information about all members listed in Appendix 2)
The Two-Year College Section reported that Dr. Harvey Long, IBM, educational applications consultant, will be their convention speaker. He will discuss learning patterns related to the introduction of computers in the learning environment.

Faith Line, Chairman, Public Services Section, announced a panel discussion of the problem patron as the section program in Charleston. Speakers will be from Charleston institutions and agencies: Jan Buvinger, county library; James Bridges, county attorney's office; Sgt. Barney Metts, county police, and Kirby Bond, area mental health department. Line also reported the nominees for officers of the section and of the related interest groups (Appendix 3).

Michael Leonard, SKYPS, gave a detailed listing of the program for his section (Appendix 4). There is a wide variety of material in the presentations, and several librarians from the state are participating in the program.

Penny Forrester reported that Brodart, Inc., has already sent a check in the amount of $250 which will be used to pay the ASCR speaker, Dr. Charles Joyner. The nominating committee has recommended Stephen Richardson, Greenville County Library, as Vice-Chairman Elect and Michael Kohl, Clemson University, as Secretary for 1986.

GODORT is sponsoring a pre-conference session, led by a Government Printing Office Depository Library Inspector, who will share program responsibilities for the section with the executive director of the AMIGOS Bibliographic Council. Deborah Yerkes, USC-Columbia, is incoming GODORT chair. Nominee for Vice Chair/Chair Elect is Sherman Pyatt of The Citadel.

Florence Steele, chair of the Trustee Section, announced that W. Kenneth Wright will be the speaker for the Saturday breakfast session. His topic will be, "Demographic Realities of the 1980's and Their Implications on Public Policy." Steele is contacting each trustee concerning the convention, as well as enlisted the chairmen in encouraging participation.

JMRT chair, Joseph Rice, reported the awarding of the Baker & Taylor Grassroots Grant to Samantha Brown, a library science student at South Carolina State College, making it possible for her to attend the fall convention. JMRT will have Sue Ellen Bridgers, author of several outstanding young adult novels, as speaker at the luncheon meeting. Other members of SCLA are invited to attend.

Michael Leonard, Chair of the Publicity and Awards Committee, made several announcements. A) Nominations for the Friend of the Library Award have been received. The recipient will be announced at the conference banquet, October 11. B) Valerie Staley will chair the 1986 National Library Week Subcommittee. The 1985 committee was charged with drafting a statement in support of literary and literacy projects in S.C. for the NLW theme, A Nation of Readers. They also wrote a proclamation which was read by Gov. Riley, proclaiming April 14-28 Library Week in S.C. Valeria, Libby Law and others were present at the reading, and photos were sent to daily and weekly papers in the state. This committee also developed and distributed a questionnaire concerning the types of NLW activities they sponsored. The results are not yet available.

C) The SWAP and Shop Sub-Committee is planning to collect and display various types of promotional and program materials from all types of libraries during the convention. D) ALA Children's Notable Showcase will be provided by the Charleston County Library as an exhibit throughout the conference at the Francis Marion Radisson Hotel. It will include books, filmstrips, recordings and tapes. Recipients of the SCYPS program packets will receive an annotated bibliography of the showcase.

The Intellectual Freedom Committee is receiving nominations for this year's award. It is also continuing to work on the Grievance Procedure for Site Visits. It has arranged to have a Clearinghouse of documents pertaining to Intellectual Freedom Issues, which will be maintained by Lou Whitmore of SCLA.

Frankie Cubbedge's report as ALA Councillor was presented by Drucie Reeves. It highlights actions of Council of concern to us. The full report is found in Appendix 5.

Drucie Reeves gave the report as SCASL Representative; SCASL is participating in the SKYPS program; it participated in developing the Task Force on the Role of the School Library Media Specialist; and, it is sending information concerning the Children's Book Award and the Young Adult Book Award Programs for the current year to the state's public libraries.

The SELA Representative asked Carl to announce that state presidents, vice-presidents, and major leaders would be meeting the next week.

The meeting was adjourned, with the next session planned prior to the first session of the fall convention.

Respectfully submitted,

Helen L. Calhoun

NOTE: The Appendices mentioned in the above minutes are attached to the original and become part of the permanent records kept by the SCLA Secretary. Copies of the Appendices are available from Executive Secretary Lou Whitmore.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Carl Stone, at 10:30.

David Cohen gave the treasurer’s report, which was accepted unanimously.

Tom Raines gave the membership report, noting that the total membership, including the honorary life members, is now 712, with 672 regular members.

A motion was made by Drucie Reeves that a plaque with a gavel be given to each outgoing president, beginning with Carl Stone. Helen L. Callison seconded the motion, and it was passed unanimously.

Susan Hollifield moved that members of the board receive certificates each year. Seconded by Michael Leonard and passed.

Carl announced that he had received a letter of resignation as editor of S.C. Librarian from Larry Mittlin. Following that, he received a telephoned resignation as editor of News & Views from Bill Cooper.

Susan Hollifield, Vice-President/President-Elect, announced the official opening of the annual conference with the GODORT preconference. Three hundred and thirty individuals preregistered for the SCLA Convention. The large number of exhibitors required the annexation of the Calhoun Room for their use and a number of other exhibitors had to be turned down due to lack of space. The Vice-President reminded the board that the form to report newly elected section/roundtable officers should be completed and given to her or to Carl Stone, asking also that every effort be made through orientation to facilitate the transition to the new leaders. Susan asked that the audience at each program be reminded to complete the conference evaluation form. She also solicited suggestions for 1986 committee appointments.

Susan announced that the next board meeting would be held on November 16 and asked that we get all information to the new board members as quickly as possible. Due to the fact that the hotel booked a medical convention at the same time as the SCLA meetings, some of the session locations have been changed. Susan asked that we help keep people aware of the new locations and that we be very candid about the hotel’s failure to carry out its commitments for the convention. The local arrangements committee was informed of the conflict only the night before the convention opened.
Charles Grubbs announced that Penny Forrester had agreed to be vice-president/president-elect of the Library Administration Section.

Michael Leonard gave a full report of the SCYPS plans for the conference. Jacqueline Kelley is Chair-elect of SCYPS. Conference presenters for SCYPS were provided the following benefits: mileage to the conference, up to $50; paid registration; one night's accommodations, double occupancy. The Robert Ivey Ballet received an honorarium of $50.

Michael also gave the report from the Publicity and Awards Committee. President Carl Stone proposed that the Publicity and Awards Committee be divided into two separate committees. The Publicity Committee would be responsible for the those activities already established by the guidelines published in the SCLA Handbook, under Organization, Committees. Section III C-6. The members of the National Library Week Committee would form a sub-committee of the Publicity Committee. Members of the National Library Week Committee for 1985 were appointed by Carl Stone, with Valeria Staley as Chair.

The Awards Committee for 1985 was chaired by Paul Dove. It solicited nominations for the 1985 Friend of Libraries Award with a notice and application published in the South Carolina News and Views. Three nominations were received by the 15 August 1985 deadline. After consultations by mail and by phone, the committee chose Marge Porterfield, a volunteer at the Lexington County Branch Library, as the 1985 recipient. She will receive a plaque at the banquet.

SCLA's National Library Week sub-committee for 1985 was involved with several activities:

1. The compilation and issuance of information on the state of literacy nationally and locally. They encouraged libraries to participate in promoting and providing, where needed, literacy training.

2. The cooperative effort of SCLA, SCASL, the SC Literacy Association, the State Library Board, and the SC Office of Adult Education in getting Governor Riley to sign a proclamation declaring April 14-28 to be South Carolina Library Week. Photos and accounts of this event were sent to papers throughout the state.

3. The surveying of libraries in the state to identify special activities carried out for this week.

4. The successful appearance of twenty-five or more articles promoting literacy and the use of libraries in S.C. papers in the various counties.

Possible activities planned for the 1986 observation include:

1. The design and production of a library brochure, working with the Publicity Committee, to be placed in the Welcome Centers on super highways.

2. Preparation of paper place mats, featuring a state map with library locations identified. They plan to seek financial assistance from businesses in preparing these and arrange for them to be distributed by selected businesses.
3. Library banners and billboards.
4. Promote use of public service announcements via radio and television.
5. News release on the theme for 1986 NLW and broader involvement at the local level in celebrating it. SC librarians will be encouraged to purchase ALA's 1986 book of ideas for NLW.
6. The News for South Carolina Libraries, News & Views, and the South Carolina Librarian will be used to keep librarians informed about upcoming activities and to enlist their participation.
7. Preparation of a directory of South Carolina Libraries and Librarians.

The proposed budget for NLW Sub-Committee is $350 ($300 for postage and $50 for telephone costs). Valeria Staley presented this portion of the report from the larger committee. Members for 1986 are included in Attachment 6.

Florence Steele, Chair of the Trustee Section, reported that their section would have a Saturday breakfast meeting, as usual, since this was the time when they had their best attendance. Mrs. Roddey Stoudemire is being nominated as Chair, with Mrs. Patricia Doyle to be named Vice-Chair.

Charles Grubbs requested that he be replaced as Chair of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee for 1986, since he has served in that capacity for the two years he has been on it. Helen L. Callison will succeed him as chair. Charles reminded the board that the announcement concerning changes in the by-laws had been announced appropriately and would be voted upon at the general business meeting.

Frankie H. Cubbedge, ALA Councilor, gave a report of her year's activities. Handouts concerning the 1985 Midwinter Council Actions and her voting record were available for the board and for others.

Neal Martin, SELA Representative, reported that Claudia Medory has come aboard as the new executive secretary of SELA. Neal and Carl both the SELA board meeting in Atlanta and found that SCLA operated on the lowest dues schedule in the region. We have been asked to publicize the award program of SELA within the state.

The continuing education committee, chaired by Suzanne Krebsbach, announced that all of the $600 available for scholarships this year had been awarded. Included in these were $50 scholarships to six or seven librarians in order to permit them to attend the annual SCLA conference.

Suzanne Krebsbach, who also chaired the Special Libraries Section, presented an annual report.
Carl Stone, president, called the meeting to order. After welcoming the group, he called for the treasurer’s report. This was accepted as read.

Suzanne Krebsbach, Chair of the Continuing Education Committee, reported that six or seven librarians had been able to attend the annual conference though the awarding of scholarships from the committee.

Mary Bull, Chair of the Planning Committee, suggested that the association adopt the ALA Code of Ethics. The membership did so unanimously.

Trish Ridgeway, Chair of the Ad Hoc Interlibrary Loan Protocol Committee asked that one editorial revision (Section IV, C) be made. The revision cites the current ALA guide for interlibrary loan procedures be accepted as the guide for SC libraries. Originally, the author and title of the specific guide had been included, but revision or replacement of the specific ALA guide calls for a more general definition of the accepted guide.

In addition, Ridgeway brought the submission by the committee of a new item under IX, Protocol:

A. Local Interlibrary Loan Agreements
Libraries are encouraged to develop and participate in agreements both among libraries within their local area and among libraries of like kind in order to expedite the processing of interlibrary loan materials. This protocol is not intended to supplant any agreements made among libraries.

This addition to the protocol was adopted also.

Charles Grubbs, Chair of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee, gave his committee report and it was voted on item by item. Section B: The body voted, 34 for and 21 against, to make the membership year run from convention to convention, while the fiscal year will continue to run with the calendar year.

Amendment 2: To amend Article 2 by adding:

f. Dues for Sustaining Members shall be $35.00. The Sustaining Membership will entitle the member to join Three Sections or Round Tables with each Section or Round Table receiving $2.00, and members wishing to join more than Three Sections or Round Tables shall pay an additional $2.00 for each additional membership. (Carried) (See Attachment 7 -- revised pages for your SCLA HANDBOOK covering the Bylaws Amendments approved 10/12/85.)

There was no old business. The first item under New Business was the report of the Nominating Committee. Dr. Barbara Jenkins, SC State College, was elected Vice-President/President-Elect. Cate Townsend, McCormick Middle School, was elected Second Vice President. Michael Leonard, Charleston County Library, was elected Secretary. David Cohen agreed to remain as Treasurer and was elected unanimously, as were the others. (The Nominating Committee was made up of Deborah Hotchkiss, Alleene Holland, Trish Ridgeway, and Drucie Reeves.)

Drucie Reeves moved that the association convey a message of appreciation and best wishes to Charles Davis, Senior. The move was seconded and carried.

Carl Stone gave the President's Report, which is included in the annual reports. After turning the gavel over to Susan Hollifield, the session was adjourned.

SCLA Executive Board Meeting
October 12, 1985

President Susan Hollifield called for an introduction of old and new board members. Then she asked if there were any volunteers for the editorship of News & Views. There have been two volunteers for the editor’s job of South Carolina Librarian. Perhaps they may serve as co-editors. Hollifield will bring back a suggestion for board approval at the next meeting.

Since we need to employ a new executive secretary, the following information was presented:

The salary this year has been $4,800; a range 5% below this to 5% above was suggested for the Search Committee. It was requested that the position be advertised in Greenville, Spartanburg, Columbia, and Charleston papers. Paul Dove will chair the Search Committee, assisted by David Warren and Helen L. Callison.

Barbara Jenkins announced that the convention next year will have emphasis on the history of SC libraries. It was suggested that the sale of SCLA tee shirts might help in funding the history project.

The question arose about which committee would send out press releases concerning new officers. Michael Leonard agreed to do this for the current session.

Cate Townsend suggested strongly that part of the exhibitors’ fees be designated as membership dues, so that all of them would receive all mailings of the association. The question of voting memberships was tied into this discussion. The matter will be addressed in the near future.

As a matter of public relations, Susan threw out the idea that it might be worthwhile to invite representatives of all associations based in Columbia to a social function of the Association.

David Cohen reported that he maintains an overall mailing list, identifying current, paid-up memberships. These can be printed by sections, round tables, etc.
