FROM YOUR EDITORS ... A NOTE ON THIS ISSUE & CHANGES TO COME

This is the second issue of your SCLA newsletter, News & Views, published in 1987; we've numbered it Number 2 & 3 of Volume 9. The next issue should be published in January-February, 1988, with a focus on coverage of the SCLA Annual Convention (news and activities).

The delay was caused, in part, by Mike Freeman's departure as co-editor (he went West to Utah), and my impending departure as Co-Editor (see pages 5-6) will further complicate publication of News & Views. We apologize for the delays; Nancy Washington, new Co-Editor at the USC Library Processing Center, has picked up Mike Freeman's role and will continue as the "news-gatherer" end of the team.

Co-Editor candidates (volunteers) with word processing/computer systems and editing skills should contact either President Jenkins or President-Elect Krebsbach to volunteer to become Co-Editor of News & Views. You are needed!

1989 SCLA CONVENTION SITES/HOTELS PROBED

A number of site visits have been made to select the site for the 1989 SCLA Convention; the site visit team includes SCLA 1986/87 President Barbara Jenkins, SC Librarian Editor Katina Strauch, and SCLA Secretary Dorothy Fludd. Hilton Head, SC is the prime location under study, and a visit on 9/2/87 was made to both the Palmetto Dunes and the Hyatt Regency by the site visit team. Dates under consideration range from October, 1989 - November 17, 1989. The Hilton Head Island sites provide excellent exhibit and conference facilities; 400 hotel (continued) rooms; reasonable exhibit charges; and, good arrangements for SCLA as host. In addition to the Hilton Head sites, sites in Columbia (Radisson) and in Charleston (Mills Hyatt; Charleston Place; Sheraton Charleston; and, Charleston Marriott) have been visited and evaluated. An announcement/selection of the site will be made by the SCLA Executive Board soon.

CO-EDITOR McCULLEY RESIGNS FROM NEWS & VIEWS — NOTES ON THE FUTURE

"Effective immediately, I, Michael McCulley, resign my position as Co-Editor of News & Views. I have accepted a position as Senior Information Specialist with the Research Division of W.R. Grace & Company, and will be assuming my new duties at the Washington Research Center (WRC) in Columbia, MD on November 2, 1987. I will be leaving my position of Assistant Librarian, Cryovac Division, W.R. Grace & Company, effective 10/31/87.

"I will miss my fine South Carolina colleagues around the state and those I've met or worked with in various positions or activities since 1983. You may reach me c/o Research Division, W.R. Grace & Company, Information Center-Library, 7379 Route #32, Columbia, MD, (301) 531-4262.

"News & Views needs some help, even with Nancy Washington continuing as Co-Editor now. Another member willing to act as Co-Editor, with a computer and word processing software, and time to give -- this volunteer is needed. But, in the long run, I think SCLA members and leadership should give some thought to two (2) key questions for the future:

(1) In this new age of "desktop publishing," wouldn't it be wise for SCLA to purchase a computer and software system for the production of News & Views and other SCLA publications? The "editors" could then be any member(s) with time, rather than requiring them to own/have access to computer/word processing equipment. I think this is the way to go, and the wave of the future. Other library associations could be consulted about their publications by computer, and I'm sure that Chris Billinsky at USC-CLIS could help identify the best hardware and software for SCLA to purchase.

(2) Shouldn't News & Views be re-evaluated overall? Is it meeting the needs of the members coming out just quarterly? The SC State Library now publishes an excellent monthly newsletter, "News for South Carolina Libraries." It's current, up-to-date, and full of news -- covering more than just SC State Library news and activities. There are other significant newsletters reaching the SC library community now, including the new SC Chapter of Special Libraries Association newsletter, now called "Palmetto Information Notes."

"I recommend a broad re-assessment of News & Views in light of other publications and the information needs of the association. Could there be some "merger" of publications, some new "joint" publication to serve the SC library community better than our separate ones? Our "People in the News" section is a duplication of news from the SC State Library newsletter, for the most part. As we discovered in the meetings of the SC mega-group of library and media organizations (SC LIMO), there's a need for coordination, cooperation, and information exchange (continued)"

among the various groups; we still don't have a workable mechanism for a joint annual calendar of various meetings. Just some ideas and food for thought and possible action by the SCLA membership, the SC library leadership, and any future editors ..."

SC LEGISLATIVE UPDATE --- (from SC State Library)

House Passes Increase in Library Funding -- On 8/5/87, the U.S. House passed the FY 88 Labor-HHS-Education Appropriations Bill (HR 3058), by a vote of 336-89. Representatives Derrick, Patterson, Ravenel, Spratt, and Tallon voted in favor of passage on the final ballot; only Congressman Spence voted against the final passage.

FCC Issues Text of Proposal to Increase Telecom Costs -- The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) issued the text of its notice of proposed rule making in the CC Docket No. 87-215 on July 17, 1987. The proposal would eliminate the exemption from access charges for "enhanced services providers" or value-added networks. Companies that offer online data transmission services through local telephone loops, such as Telenet, Tymnet, CompuServe, etc., would have to begin paying access charges January 1, 1988. Comments on the proposal were due by September 24, 1987 (extended from August 24). At last report, the FCC and Congress had received a great deal of mail on the proposal, mostly opposing the action; there were reports the FCC would delay the implementation date. Stay tuned ...

SC State Library Submits Budget Request -- The State Library Board on 8/6/87 approved the FY 88-89 budget request, to be submitted to the Budget and Control Board. The total request of $910,810 is composed of the State Library's request for operations of $298,465 (increase of 14.7%) and $612,345 for state aid to public libraries (increase of 20.6%). The State Library hearing before the B&C Board was scheduled for 9/2/87, and before the Joint Legislative Committee on Cultural Affairs on 9/15/87.

Our committee members will set up the display and keep the table stocked and well organized. I look forward to helping you "Swap and Shop" at the 1987 SCLA Convention. -- Patton Bryson Conrad, Chair, Swap and Shop Committee

PUBLIC LIBRARY STANDARDS -- RECOMMENDED CHANGES UP FOR OK AT 1987 CONVENTION

Members of the Public Library Section should have received a copy of the "Recommended Changes in Standards" mailing from Jane A. McGregor. At the business meeting of the Section at the 1986 Annual Conference, the vote on the changes in Standards for South Carolina Public Libraries was postponed until the 1987 Convention business meeting. You are asked to study the changes carefully, and to come to the business meeting of the Section at the Convention in Green-ville prepared to discuss and vote on the recommendations. For more information, contact Chair, Public Library Section, Jane A. McGregor, SC State Library, (803) 734-8666.

SC LIBRARIES -- NEWS FROM LIBRARIES ACROSS THE STATE

On 8/19/87, the Richland County Public Library (RCPL) and the Marriott Hotel hosted an appreciation party for the 50 junior volunteers between the ages of 9 and 12 who worked in the Children's Room throughout the summer. Approximately 40 children attended. After an award ceremony at the RCPL, with Director David Warren presenting certificates and RCPL t-shirts to each child, an ice cream party sponsored by the Marriott began. A clown served sundaes and there were balloons everywhere. The children made friends over the chocolate ice cream and cherries. RCPL Children's Librarian Leslie Barban said, "We all had a marvelous time and I am sure these children will always know that the library is available to them for information or pleasure."

During September, 1987, the Greenville County Public Library (GCPL) displayed an exhibit in the vestibule sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). Themes of the exhibit were "Constitution Week" and "Earth Watch."

The GCPL provides a Library Literacy Hotline for residents who are concerned about their reading skills. Services include: tutoring for adults who want to learn to read or to improve their reading skills; preparation programs for persons seeking to qualify for the GED; and, English skills classes for those with a different native language. Special materials are available for literacy students, such as the high interest New Readers - Adult Collection, simplified versions of popular classics and teaching videocassettes for home use.

ASPECTS OF THE WESTERN RELIGIOUS HERITAGE

The Special Collections Department of the Thomas Cooper Library at the University of South Carolina is mounting an exhibition, "Aspects of the Western Religious Heritage," as part of the celebration of USC's Ecumenical Year. The exhibition, which was formally opened on August 15, 1987, by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Robert Runcie, spotlights five varied aspects of the Western religious experience. It features materials selected from the department's holdings of particular interest to a wide public audience.

The exhibition is divided into five sections: The Pre-Reformation Period, 1350-1520; the Reformation, 1520-1660; the Churches in North America, 1620-1875; Literary Aspects of Roman Catholicism in 19th Century England; and, Religion and the 20th Century Fine Press Movement. A detailed catalog, which gives extensive background on every item, is also being published by the library. Both the exhibition and catalog were prepared by Roger Mortimer, Head of Special Collections, USC's Thomas Cooper Library.
